

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF EAST LIVERPOOL.

MORTGAGEE SALE OF FINE DRY GOODS AT THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

The stock of the People's Store must be sold to meet claims of the chattel mortgagees at once. Low prices now prevail. First come gets best bargains. For further particulars see issue of News Review next Wednesday; also handbills that will soon be issued.

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

Fifth and Diamond.

C. C. BEYMER, Agent for Mortgagees.

WRAPPER ... SALE.

We have fifty Wrappers all told to close out; 25 that formerly sold from $1.25 to $2.00, and 25 that sold from $2.25 to $3.50.

They Must Go.

They Will Go.

Here is what will make them go: Tomorrow morning we will offer every Wrapper in the store from $1.25 to $2.00 for 98c each.

Every Wrapper that formerly sold at $2.25 to $2.50 will be offered for . . .

$1.49 each.

Comment is unnecessary. Here is a chance to buy Wrappers at less than the lowest wholesale price.

The Boston Store,

A. S. YOUNG, 138 and 140 Fifth Street. East Liverpool, Ohio.

BID THEM ALL GOODBY

Reverend Whitehead Defended His Position.

SPOKE OF THE LATE STRIKE

His Conscience Moved Him In The Social Purity Movement, and He Did What He Thought Was Right—Temperance Declared to Be the Issue of the Day.

Rev. R. B. Whitehead preached his farewell sermon to a large congregation at the Methodist Protestant church last evening, and in the course of an eloquent address defended his official and private actions during the three years he has been pastor of the church.

The gentleman reviewed the work since his pastorate began, and spoke of the hard times during the period covered by his residence in this city. Money and work had been scarce, he said, but the church was better financially at present than at any other time. He defended the position he had taken when the strike was inaugurated, and said he was still on the same side. He made no effort to conceal that he looked upon the reduction of wages in the potteries as unjust, and declared that subsequent events had born him out. The improvements in the plants and private residences of manufacturers were proof to him that he had made no mistake when he fought the reduction.

The gentleman realized that he had been severely criticised for his part in the social purity movement, but his conscience had dictated his action, and he had gladly followed it. He did not care what effect it had upon his salary so long as he knew he was doing right. Some members of the congregation had said they would not pay a cent toward his support as pastor, and they had faithfully carried out their declaration. That, however, had little of evil result. He had been paid his salary just the same. The gentleman then reviewed some of the most vicious practices of the people, and warned them of the punishment to come if they persistently shut their eyes against the appalling evil done civilization and the cause of God by social impurity. He covered the ground eloquently, and pointed out the danger of permitting the practice to go unnoticed and unpunished.

For his position on the temperance question the gentleman had no excuse. He was right in that, and he defied anyone to prove to the contrary. His hatred for the saloon was fostered by his love for humanity. He expected to continue in the fight until God gave temperance the victory or he could no longer defend the side he had taken. Reverend Whitehead stated several times that he talked politics in the pulpit, or rather discussed the temperance side of it, because he knew of no better place where the cause could be better advanced. "He believed that every drop of blood wrung from the hearts and backs of the black men before the war had been bottled up by God. When He went to the church and urged them to crush with a hand of steel the awful atrocities of slavery, the north would have none of it and the south laughed him to scorn. Then He took it in His own hand, and for every drop of the blood he had saved he made red, red streams to flow, and the curse of slavery was stamped out forever. The fight is coming again. God has repeatedly appealed to his church, but his appeals are heard in vain. He will endure it for a time, but it will not be long until he will stretch forth his own all mighty hand, and gather in measure tenfold for every groan, and tear and heart throb the accursed traffic has brought forth. The Republicans and Democrats, he said, fought over an issue in which a paltry sum of gold or silver made up the component parts, while the liquor traffic each year amounted to over a billion dollars in money and untold values in souls. The temperance people, he said, had the issue, and God would not be long in forcing it to the front.

In touching on the differences of opinion, Reverend Whitehead declared he had no evil thought for any man in the city. He prayed earnestly for the future prosperity of the people and East Liverpool, and asked a blessing upon the whole city. When the sermon was finished the congregation sang "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and Reverend Whitehead shook hands with all the people present.

VERY ANGRY.

Mrs. Rutledge Is After All The Reporters In Town.

A visitor from this city was in Lisbon Saturday, and during his stay called at the county jail and conversed with the inmates of that institution. Mrs. Rutledge and Moses Swindells, in default of the money to pay their fines, are still in durance vile. Mrs. Rutledge was in a very talkative mood, and told the East Liverpool resident that she was an innocent person. With a great deal of vehemence she declared in tones of indignation that when she secured her freedom she would return to East Liverpool, and flay all the reporters in town who had caused to be printed such base falsehoods against her. Swindells was asleep, and the visitor did not ascertain if he had any hostile feeling for the newspaper men. Heckathorn and Croxall said, "Just tell them that you saw me" and, "We also are innocent."

TO THE WOODS.

Sportsmen Will Start For Squirrels Tomorrow.

Hunters are cleaning their guns and preparing to start in search of rabbits and squirrels, as the season opens tomorrow. The law in regard to pheasants is explicit, and sportsmen are not permitted to shoot them until November 10, the time quail season opens. One of the foremost sportsmen of the county when questioned in regard to the law said he was not favorably impressed with it, believing it would be better to open the game law on November 10, instead of permitting the killing of rabbits and squirrels two months before the quail and pheasant season is opened.

A BABY SHOW.

The Powers Would Like to Have It With the Fair.

Street fair officials announce that they would like to have a baby show in connection with the other amusements, and promise to help along any responsible party who will undertake the task. They want big babies and little babies, pretty babies and ugly babies, and babies who have the bluest eyes, the blackest hair, reddest hair, sweetest mouth, brightest face. The largest, the fattest, and the youngest with teeth are also needed, while the prettiest and the heaviest twins are almost as much in demand as the sweetest colored baby in the county.

NO GOOD.

Local Chinamen Do Not Like the Great Li Hung Chang.

If the great Li Hung Chang should drop into the city for an hour or two there would be no reception committee nor eloquent speeches, with burning incense and cheering Chinamen to show him honor. The local Celestials do not like the mighty earl. Several were asked if they were going to Pittsburg when he came to that city, and all replied in the negative. When asked if he was a great man, one vehemently declared "No good," and another said "N. G." They do not give reasons, but invariably look angry when his name is mentioned.

ON SUNDAY.

Will the Free Silver Wagon Work Every Day In The Week?

"Will the free silver wagon run on Sunday?" asked a business man of the NEWS REVIEW. "I want to know before I support this thing. I am going to have a trough 16 feet long and one foot wide built in front of my house so that the dispenser of free silver for East Liverpool will have no difficulty in providing my family with coin after Bryan is elected. If the wagon will run on Sunday all right, but if, like the ice and coal wagons, it will only run six days in the week I want to lay in an extra supply on Saturday."

A YELLOW DOG

Gets Better Treatment Than a Visiting Club in Wellsville.

The Stars played ball in Wellsville Saturday, and defeated the Crescents by a score of 11-4. The game was well played by the visitors, but the treatment accorded them would have done honor to the wildest spot in the South Sea islands. Small boys were allowed to hoot and howl as though their lungs were made of leather, and when the game went against the home team they began throwing dirt and stones at the visitors. No attempt was made to preserve order, and the Stars say they will take the sheriff the next time they go to Wellsville.

JUST A PLAIN LIE.

Democrats Are at Their Old Tricks In Cleveland.

The Democrats of Cleveland are making a great uproar because, as they say, the railroad men have been ordered to vote against free silver under pain of dismissal from the service of the different companies. Superintendent Schriener, of the Cleveland and Pittsburg, at once denied the report, and stated that employees of the Pennsylvania company could do as they pleased. The movement for sound money is devoid of coercion, but is spreading rapidly.

A WOMAN AMONG THEM

Mayor Gilbert Had All Kinds of Visitors.

MR. DOZZLE AND MISS BRIGHOUSE

Were Locked Up on a Charge Which Almost Cost a Ten—William Morrow Paid For Sunday Selling—Plain Drunks and a Couple of Youthful Thieves.

Police court was the liveliest place in town this morning, and Mayor Gilbert disposed of culprits with a willing hand.

W. A. Hill complained on Saturday that George Harris and Samuel Dawson, young boys, had been stealing from his store. A number of pocket knives and many other small articles had been missed, and he wanted the boys frightened into behaving themselves. Dawson's father accompanied him, and it was arranged to have the boys arrested. They were locked up for the night, and fined $1 and costs, after the mayor had given them a lecture.

William Bradley was too drunk to move without trouble when Officer Jennings found him in an alley off Third street late Saturday night. He was allowed to slumber in peace until morning, when he was fined $6.00. He didn't have the price about him, and C. W. Hutcheson paid the bill.

A. A. Dozzle is a colored barber of Smoky row, and infatuated with Lizzie Brighthouse. Officer Earl was in that part of town soon after the clock showed Sunday was here, and knew the pair were occupying Dozzle's place of business. He succeeded in gaining entrance, and took the guilty pair to city hall. They were kept in confinement until this morning, and Dozzle was released after paying $9.00. The woman will be allowed to go when she settles for her sin.

William Morrow, proprietor of the old Anderson House on Robinson street, appeared to answer the charge of selling liquor on Sunday. He acknowledged that a number of persons were in the barroom of the hotel yesterday, but denied he had sold them anything to drink. The story did not have the required weight with Mayor Gilbert, and Morrow was assessed $30. Officer Meador made the charge.

Peter Delaney was arrested for stealing numerous rides from the railroad company, and will have a hearing this evening. The charge was made by Detective Meehan whose business it is to break up the practice.

MUST HAVE EVIDENCE.

Humane Agent Lloyd Again States His Position.

Agent Lloyd, of the Humane society, wants the public to understand that he cannot prosecute a complaint sent to him on a postal card without the name of the complainant. He received the announcement this morning that a horse was confined in a stable in the alley between Sixth and Seventh streets, and was eating up the building because there was no food at hand. No name was signed, and the agent declared positively he would do nothing until he learned the name of the complainant.

DEMOCRATS FOR M'KINLEY.

Three Hanover Men Have Renounced Their Party.

Hon. A. H. McCoy and D. J. Smith spoke to several hundred farmers in Hanover on Saturday night. The gentlemen pointed out the errors of Democracy in such a manner as to bring three leading Democrats into the Republican fold. At the close of the meeting a McKinley club was organized, and more than 150 farmers put their names on the membership roll. Many could not gain entrance to the hall. Hanover is another place Mr. Potts will not carry for free silver this fall.

ROLLING IN.

Entries For Labor Day Events Please the Committee.

Members of sports committee having in charge the athletic contests for Labor day are pleased with the manner in which entries are coming in. The book was opened Saturday at noon, and at 6 o'clock six anxious ones had their names on the rolls. While the committee do not expect to maintain this average until the races start they feel confident the number of entries will be larger this year than usual.

TO BANK STREET.

Indications That Avondale Street Will Be Paved.

Judging from present indications, Avondale will be paved to the intersection of Bank street. Two papers are being circulated to have the work done, and the unhesitancy of property owners in attaching their signatures to the document gives rise to the belief that the improvement so long agitated will be made. Councilman Challis, who has labored so hard to have the street paved, is endeavoring to have the objecting ones sign the waiver and join the procession.

MRS. CLINE

Died Yesterday Morning at Her Pennsylvania Home.

Mrs. W. A. Cline, formerly of this city, died at her late home in Munhall, Pa., yesterday morning, after a short illness with peritonitis. Deceased was the daughter of Albert Webster, who until several weeks ago was a resident of this city, but is now living in Munhall. The remains will be brought here tomorrow and interred in Riverview. Services will be conducted at the First Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow morning by Reverend Huston, and Reverend Sleppy, of Union church, Allegheny.

Miss Nannie Monroe.

Miss Nannie Monroe died this morning at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Edie Dickey, Fourth street, after a long illness. She was for years a resident of Beaver, but has been living here since leaving a Pittsburg hospital several weeks ago. Deceased was aged 49 years, and suffered from a complication of diseases. The funeral will take place tomorrow with interment in Riverview. Doctor Lee will have charge of the services.

Curt Welch.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Curtis B. Welch were conducted this morning at St. Aloysius church by Father Synthe. A large number of friends were in attendance, and after the beautiful ceremony had been passed through the body of the once famous athlete was laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery.

Mrs. Bella Palmer.

Beautiful services were conducted this afternoon in New Brighton, and the remains of Mrs. Bella Palmer were interred in Grove cemetery. A large concourse of sorrowing friends followed the body to the grave.

AMUSING INCIDENTS

Marked a Case In Squire Morley's Court Today.

Sometime ago Frank W. Fowler obtained a judgment against Mrs. Mary McKeever for $27 tuition, but was unable to collect the money. A case to procure action in aid of execution was then entered, and is being heard by Squire Morley today. It was charged that Mrs. McKeever turned over to her sister $272 building and loan stock, and the attorneys for the plaintiff are endeavoring to have the transfer set aside. The case has occupied all the time of the justice since 10 o'clock, and is full of amusing incidents.

A M'KINLEY BAND.

There Is Enthusiasm to Peddle at the Opera House.

The attaches of the Grand Opera House are Republicans, and the McKinley sentiment echoes and reechoes through the big auditorium every day in the week. That sort of thing pleases the boys immensely, but they want to show the world a thing or two. With that thought in view they have organized a McKinley band of 14 pieces. Each member will be arrayed in the costume of some nation, and they will play every national air of any consequence on the old fashioned vocophones of history.

ONE DEAD DOG.

It Bit a Boy and Went to Join the Great Majority.

The big dog owned by Jerry Lynch bit the son of Louis Steinfeld this morning, and was taken to the place of execution at city hall. The animal was shot, but so much time was consumed before the poor thing died that many expressions in favor of chloroform were heard. The opinion was general that the city should have dogs killed in the manner which will cause them the least pain. It is as effective as a bullet and is more humane.

THEIR REPUTATION.

The Rovers Will Work Hard to Hold It on Labor Day.

The Rover football club will meet this evening at the Young Men's Christian association rooms for the purpose of selecting the teams for Labor day. They will consist of six men to a side. Every evening for two hours the team practices, and they will make strong efforts to hold their reputation as champions of Eastern Ohio in the games scheduled for the season.

Taken to Pittsburg.

John Fletcher, of whom mention was made in the NEWS REVIEW some time ago, was taken to the home of his daughter in Pittsburg today.

COUNTY NEEDS MONEY

Treasurer Cameron Sued Fourteen Delinquents.

IT IS ALL FOR PERSONAL TAXES

The Amounts Are on the Duplicate, and He Hopes For Judgments—East Liverpool Represented—Wellsville Comes In For Its Share—May Be Others.

LISBON, Aug. 31.—[Special.]—Treasurer Cameron filed 14 separate actions in common pleas today seeking to recover judgment for personal taxes charged against the defendants on the tax duplicate. The aggregate, including penalties, is $6,327.67, and is what follows:

Cynthia Bradshaw, East Liverpool, $796.45; Alex McCurdy, Pennsylvania, $1,781.74; Henry Cooper, Wellsville, $1,615.50; Josephine G. Tabor, Salem, $413.55; A. B. Lith, Wellsville, $449.25; Anna Riggs, Wellsville, $249.55; Mary A. Wernett, Hanover, $417.12; Mary A. Terron, $478.17; J. R. Warner, East Liverpool, $339.36; W. H. Sheets, Wellsville, $433.75; Elizabeth Larkins, Wellsville, $382.14; Hamilton Howell, Salem, $328.32; E. M. Sheets, Wellsville, $58.15; Amelia H. Arter, Lisbon, $136.63.

The cases will be heard at the next term of court, and the county will make a strong effort to recover the amounts charged. Many thousands in delinquent taxes have been recovered during the past few months, but there is still some money on the books, and the officials are endeavoring to gather it in.

HEALING THE SICK.

Holiness People Tried an Experiment Sunday.

The room at Second and Market streets, occupied by Holiness Ward and his friends, was yesterday the scene of a peculiar ceremony. A little blind girl who resides near the Grand hotel with a family named Green, was the principal figure, and Ward came next. Acting upon the words found in James v. 14, the holiness people were attempting to restore her sight. The ceremony consisted of anointing her eyes and praying, while occasionally the people broke forth in song. A member of the congregation declared she could even now see a little, and it would not be long until she would be all right. This is not the first time, they say, miracles have been performed in the city, and a number of instances are given.

THEY WON.

A Dozen School Teachers Passed the Examination.

Superintendent Sanor was happy this afternoon when he completed the task of correcting the papers presented by the applicants at last week's examination, and found that a dozen had reached the required standard. They are:

Three years, Miss Cora Henry, Zanesville. Two years, Miss Kate S. Harker, Miss Grace Morgan, Miss Clara Williams, Miss Anna Thompson, Miss Ella Shaw and Mrs. Della Hayes. One year, Miss Lucile Jones, Washington C. H.; Miss Sue Estery, Miss Maude Baum, Miss Ethel Moore and Miss Grace Gould.

A HORSE UNTIED THE ROPE,

And an Arc Light Was Mashed Into Small Bits.

A horse was tied to an electric light pole on Ravine street at noon. It became restless, and gnawed at the rope supporting the arc lamp. For a time no impression was made, but eventually the rope broke. Then the lamp fell to the street with a crash, and the company will have to buy another. This is not the first time the light company have had their property destroyed in this manner, and Superintendent McKeehan is looking for people who use poles as hitching places.

MADE A MISTAKE.

Curt Welch Realized No Great Amount From the Benefit Game.

Friends of the late Curt Welch called at this office today, and desired to contradict the statement of a local paper that Mrs. Welch had realized $300 from the benefit ball game of a few months ago. To the present time the lady has only received $55.55, far from the sum published on Saturday. W. Calhoun stated that the game made less than $75, and Mrs. Welch had been paid every cent in the hands of the committee. As soon as all returns are made she will be given the money.

Sued For an Account.

The Smith Lumber company entered suit this morning in the court of Squire Rose against William Seanoer for $23. Rent in the hands of Charles E. Macrum was attached by Constable Lyon.

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF EAST LIVERPOOL.

MORTGAGEE SALE OF FINE DRY GOODS AT THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

The stock of the People's Store must be sold to meet claims of the chattel mortgagees at once. Low prices now prevail. First come gets best bargains. For further particulars see issue of News Review next Wednesday; also handbills that will soon be issued.

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

Fifth and Diamond.

C. C. BEYMER, Agent for Mortgagees.

WRAPPER ... SALE.

- ♦ We have fifty Wrappers all told to close out; 25 that formerly sold from $1.25 to $2.00, and 25 that sold from $2.25 to $3.50.

They Must Go.

They Will Go.

- ♦ Here is what will make them go: Tomorrow morning we will offer every Wrapper in the store from $1.25 to $2.00 for 98c each.

Every Wrapper that formerly sold at $2.25 to $2.50 will be offered for . . .

$1.49 each.

- ♦ Comment is unnecessary. Here is a chance to buy Wrappers at less than the lowest wholesale price.

The Boston Store,

A. S. YOUNG, 138 and 140 Fifth Street. East Liverpool, Ohio.

BID THEM ALL GOODBY

Reverend Whitehead Defended His Position.

SPOKE OF THE LATE STRIKE

His Conscience Moved Him In The Social Purity Movement, and He Did What He Thought Was Right—Temperance Declared to Be the Issue of the Day.

Rev. R. B. Whitehead preached his farewell sermon to a large congregation at the Methodist Protestant church last evening, and in the course of an eloquent address defended his official and private actions during the three years he has been pastor of the church.

The gentleman reviewed the work since his pastorate began, and spoke of the hard times during the period covered by his residence in this city. Money and work had been scarce, he said, but the church was better financially at present than at any other time. He defended the position he had taken when the strike was inaugurated, and said he was still on the same side. He made no effort to conceal that he looked upon the reduction of wages in the potteries as unjust, and declared that subsequent events had born him out. The improvements in the plants and private residences of manufacturers were proof to him that he had made no mistake when he fought the reduction.

The gentleman realized that he had been severely criticised for his part in the social purity movement, but his conscience had dictated his action, and he had gladly followed it. He did not care what effect it had upon his salary so long as he knew he was doing right. Some members of the congregation had said they would not pay a cent toward his support as pastor, and they had faithfully carried out their declaration. That, however, had little of evil result. He had been paid his salary just the same. The gentleman then reviewed some of the most vicious practices of the people, and warned them of the punishment to come if they persistently shut their eyes against the appalling evil done civilization and the cause of God by social impurity. He covered the ground eloquently, and pointed out the danger of permitting the practice to go unnoticed and unpunished.

For his position on the temperance question the gentleman had no excuse. He was right in that, and he defied anyone to prove to the contrary. His hatred for the saloon was fostered by his love for humanity. He expected to continue in the fight until God gave temperance the victory or he could no longer defend the side he had taken. Reverend Whitehead stated several times that he talked politics in the pulpit, or rather discussed the temperance side of it, because he knew of no better place where the cause could be better advanced. He believed that every drop of blood wrung from the hearts and backs of the black men before the war had been bottled up by God. When he went to the church and urged them to crush with a hand of steel the awful atrocities of slavery, the north would have lone of it and the south laughed him to scorn. Then he took it in his own hand, and for every drop of the blood he had saved he made red, red streams to flow, and the curse of slavery was stamped out forever. The fight is coming again. God has repeatedly appealed to his church, but his appeals are heard in vain. He will endure it for a time, but it will not be long until he will stretch forth his own all mighty hand, and gather in measure tenfold for every groan, and tear and heart throb the accursed traffic has brought forth. The Republicans and Democrats, he said, fought over an issue in which a paltry sum of gold or silver made up the component parts, while the liquor traffic each year amounted to over a billion dollars in money and untold values in souls. The temperance people, he said, had the issue, and God would not be long in forcing it to the front.

In touching on the differences of opinion, Reverend Whitehead declared he had no evil thought for any man in the city. He prayed earnestly for the future prosperity of the people and East Liverpool, and asked a blessing upon the whole city. When the sermon was finished the congregation sang "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and Reverend Whitehead shook hands with all the people present.

VERY ANGRY.

Mrs. Rutledge Is After All the Reporters In Town.

A visitor from this city was in Lisbon Saturday, and during his stay called at the county jail and conversed with the inmates of that institution. Mrs. Rutledge and Moses Swindells, in default of the money to pay their fines, are still in durance vile. Mrs. Rutledge was in a very talkative mood, and told the East Liverpool resident that she was an innocent person. With a great deal of vehemence she declared in tones of indignation that when she secured her freedom she would return to East Liverpool, and flay all the reporters in town who had caused to be printed such base falsehoods against her. Swindells was asleep, and the visitor did not ascertain if he had any hostile feeling for the newspaper men. Heckathorn and Croxall said, "Just tell them that you saw me" and, "We also are innocent."

TO THE WOODS.

Sportsmen Will Start For Squirrels Tomorrow.

Hunters are cleaning their guns and preparing to start in search of rabbits and squirrels, as the season opens tomorrow. The law in regard to pheasants is explicit, and sportsmen are not permitted to shoot them until November 10, the time quail season opens. One of the foremost sportsmen of the county when questioned in regard to the law said he was not favorably impressed with it, believing it would be better to open the game law on November 10, instead of permitting the killing of rabbits and squirrels two months before the quail and pheasant season is opened.

A BABY SHOW.

The Powers Would Like to Have It With the Fair.

Street fair officials announce that they would like to have a baby show in connection with the other amusements, and promise to help along any responsible party who will undertake the task. They want big babies and little babies, pretty babies and ugly babies, and babies who have the bluest eyes, the blackest hair, reddest hair, sweetest mouth, brightest face. The largest, the fattest, and the youngest with teeth are also needed, while the prettiest and the heaviest twins are almost as much in demand as the sweetest colored baby in the county.

NO GOOD.

Local Chinamen Do Not Like the Great Li Hung Chang.

If the great Li Hung Chang should drop into the city for an hour or two there would be no reception committee nor eloquent speeches, with burning incense and cheering Chinamen to show him honor. The local Celestials do not like the mighty earl. Several were asked if they were going to Pittsburgh when he came to that city, and all replied in the negative. When asked if he was a great man, one vehemently declared "No good," and another said "N. G." They do not give reasons, but invariably look angry when his name is mentioned.

ON SUNDAY.

Will the Free Silver Wagon Work Every Day in the Week?

"Will the free silver wagon run on Sunday?" asked a business man of the News Review. "I want to know before I support this thing. I am going to have a trough 16 feet long and one foot wide built in front of my house so that the dispenser of free silver for East Liverpool will have no difficulty in providing my family with coin after Bryan is elected. If the wagon will run on Sunday all right, but if, like the ice and coal wagons, it will only run six days in the week I want to lay in an extra supply on Saturday."

A YELLOW DOG

Gets Better Treatment Than a Visiting Club in Wellsville.

The Stars played ball in Wellsville Saturday, and defeated the Crescents by a score of 11-4. The game was well played by the visitors, but the treatment accorded them would have done honor to the wildest spot in the South Sea islands. Small boys were allowed to hoot and howl as though their lungs were made of leather, and when the game went against the home team they began throwing dirt and stones at the visitors. No attempt was made to preserve order, and the Stars say they will take the sheriff the next time they go to Wellsville.

JUST A PLAIN LIE.

Democrats Are at Their Old Tricks In Cleveland.

The Democrats of Cleveland are making a great uproar because, as they say, the railroad men have been ordered to vote against free silver under pain of dismissal from the service of the different companies. Superintendent Schriener, of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh, at once denied the report, and stated that employees of the Pennsylvania company could do as they pleased. The movement for sound money is devoid of coercion, but is spreading rapidly.

A WOMAN AMONG THEM

Mayor Gilbert Had All Kinds of Visitors.

MR. DOZZLE AND MISS BRIGHOUSE

Were Locked Up on a Charge Which Almost Cost a Ten—William Morrow Paid For Sunday Selling—Plain Drunks and a Couple of Youthful Thieves.

Police court was the liveliest place in town this morning, and Mayor Gilbert disposed of culprits with a willing hand.

W. A. Hill complained on Saturday that George Harris and Samuel Dawson, young boys, had been stealing from his store. A number of pocket knives and many other small articles had been missed, and he wanted the boys frightened into behaving themselves. Dawson's father accompanied him, and it was arranged to have the boys arrested. They were locked up for the night, and fined $1 and costs, after the mayor had given them a lecture.

William Bradley was too drunk to move without trouble when Officer Jennings found him in an alley off Third street late Saturday night. He was allowed to slumber in peace until morning, when he was fined $6.00. He didn't have the price about him, and C. W. Hutcherson paid the bill.

A. A. Dozzle is a colored barber of Smoky row, and infatuated with Lizzie Brighthouse. Officer Earl was in that part of town soon after the clock showed Sunday was here, and knew the pair were occupying Dozzle's place of business. He succeeded in gaining entrance, and took the guilty pair to city hall. They were kept in confinement until this morning, and Dozzle was released after paying $9.00. The woman will be allowed to go when she settles for her sin.

William Morrow, proprietor of the old Anderson House on Robinson street, appeared to answer the charge of selling liquor on Sunday. He acknowledged that a number of persons were in the barroom of the hotel yesterday, but denied he had sold them anything to drink. The story did not have the required weight with Mayor Gilbert, and Morrow was assessed $30. Officer Menner made the charge.

Peter Delaney was arrested for stealing numerous rides from the railroad company, and will have a hearing this evening. The charge was made by Detective Mehan whose business it is to break up the practice.

MUST HAVE EVIDENCE.

Humane Agent Lloyd Again States His Position.

Agent Lloyd, of the Humane society, wants the public to understand that he cannot prosecute a complaint sent to him on a postal card without the name of the complainant. He received the announcement this morning that a horse was confined in a stable in the alley between Sixth and Seventh streets, and was eating up the building because there was no food at hand. No name was signed, and the agent declared positively he would do nothing until he learned the name of the complainant.

DEMOCRATS FOR M'KINLEY.

Three Hanover Men Have Renounced Their Party.

Hon. A. H. McCoy and D. J. Smith spoke to several hundred farmers in Hanover on Saturday night. The gentlemen pointed out the errors of Democracy in such a manner as to bring three leading Democrats into the Republican fold. At the close of the meeting a McKinley club was organized, and more than 150 farmers put their names on the membership roll. Many could not gain entrance to the hall. Hanover is another place Mr. Potts will not carry for free silver this fall.

ROLLING IN.

Entries For Labor Day Events Please the Committee.

Members of sports committee having in charge the athletic contests for Labor day are pleased with the manner in which entries are coming in. The book was opened Saturday at noon, and at 6 o'clock six anxious ones had their names on the rolls. While the committee do not expect to maintain this average until the races start they feel confident the number of entries will be larger this year than usual.

TO BANK STREET.

Indications That Avondale Street Will Be Paved.

Judging from present indications, Avondale will be paved to the intersection of Bank street. Two papers are being circulated to have the work done, and the unhesitancy of property owners in attaching their signatures to the document gives rise to the belief that the improvement so long agitated will be made. Councilman Challis, who has labored so hard to have the street paved, is endeavoring to have the objecting ones sign the waiver and join the procession.

MRS. CLINE

Died Yesterday Morning at Her Pennsylvania Home.

Mrs. W. A. Cline, formerly of this city, died at her late home in Munhall, Pa., yesterday morning, after a short illness with peritonitis. Deceased was the daughter of Albert Webster, who until several weeks ago was a resident of this city, but is now living in Munhall. The remains will be brought here tomorrow and interred in Riverview. Services will be conducted at the First Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow morning by Reverend Huston, and Reverend Sleepy, of Union church, Allegheny.

Miss Nannie Monroe.

Miss Nannie Monroe died this morning at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Edie Dickey, Fourth street, after a long illness. She was for years a resident of Beaver, but has been living here since leaving a Pittsburgh hospital several weeks ago. Deceased was aged 49 years, and suffered from a complication of diseases. The funeral will take place tomorrow with interment in Riverview. Doctor Lee will have charge of the services.

Curt Welch.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Curtis B. Welch were conducted this morning at St. Aloysius church by Father Smythe. A large number of friends were in attendance, and after the beautiful ceremony had been passed through the body of the once famous athlete was laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery.

Mrs. Bella Palmer.

Beautiful services were conducted this afternoon in New Brighton, and the remains of Mrs. Bella Palmer were interred in Grove cemetery. A large concourse of sorrowing friends followed the body to the grave.

AMUSING INCIDENTS

Marked a Case In Squire Morley's Court Today.

Sometime ago Frank W. Fowler obtained a judgment against Mrs. Mary McKeever for $27 tuition, but was unable to collect the money. A case to procure action in aid of execution was then entered, and is being heard by Squire Morley today. It was charged that Mrs. McKeever turned over to her sister $272 building and loan stock, and the attorneys for the plaintiff are endeavoring to have the transfer set aside. The case has occupied all the time of the justice since 10 o'clock, and is full of amusing incidents.

A M'KINLEY BAND.

There Is Enthusiasm to Peddle at the Opera House.

The attaches of the Grand Opera House are Republicans, and the McKinley sentiment echoes and reechoes through the big auditorium every day in the week. That sort of thing pleases the boys immensely, but they want to show the world a thing or two. With that thought in view they have organized a McKinley band of 14 pieces. Each member will be arrayed in the costume of some nation, and they will play every national air of any consequence on the old fashioned vocophones of history.

ONE DEAD DOG.

It Bit a Boy and Went to Join the Great Majority.

The big dog owned by Jerry Lynch bit the son of Louis Steinfeld this morning, and was taken to the place of execution at city hall. The animal was shot, but so much time was consumed before the poor thing died that many expressions in favor of chloroform were heard. The opinion was general that the city should have dogs killed in the manner which will cause them the least pain. It is as effective as a bullet and is more humane.

THEIR REPUTATION.

The Rovers Will Work Hard to Hold It on Labor Day.

The Rover football club will meet this evening at the Young Men's Christian association rooms for the purpose of selecting the teams for Labor day. They will consist of six men to a side. Every evening for two hours the team practices, and they will make strong efforts to hold their reputation as champions of Eastern Ohio in the games scheduled for the season.

Taken to Pittsburg.

John Fletcher, of whom mention was made in the News Review some time ago, was taken to the home of his daughter in Pittsburg today.

COUNTY NEEDS MONEY

Treasurer Cameron Sued Fourteen Delinquents.

IT IS ALL FOR PERSONAL TAXES

The Amounts Are on the Duplicate, and He Hopes For Judgments—East Liverpool Represented—Wellsville Comes In For Its Share—May Be Others.

Lisbon, Aug. 31.—[Special.]—Treasurer Cameron filed 14 separate actions in common pleas today seeking to recover judgment for personal taxes charged against the defendants on the tax duplicate. The aggregate, including penalties, is $6,327.67, and is what follows: Cynthia Bradshaw, East Liverpool, $796.45; Alex McCurdy, Pennsylvania, $1,781.74; Henry Cooper, Wellsville, $161.50; Josephine G. Tabor, Salem, $413.55; A. B. Lith, Wellsville, $449.25; Anna Riggs, Wellsville, $249.55; Mary A. Wernett, Hanover, $417.12; Mary A. Terson, $478.17; J. R. Warner, East Liverpool, $239.36; W. H. Sheets, Wellsville, $438.75; Elizabeth Larkins, Wellsville, $382.14; Hamilton Howell, Salem, $328.32; E. M. Sheets, Wellsville, $58.15; Amelia H. Arter, Lisbon, $136.62.

The cases will be heard at the next term of court, and the county will make a strong effort to recover the amounts charged. Many thousands in delinquent taxes have been recovered during the past few months, but there is still some money on the books, and the officials are endeavoring to gather it in.

HEALING THE SICK.

Holiness People Tried an Experiment Sunday.

The room at Second and Market streets, occupied by Holiness Ward and his friends, was yesterday the scene of a peculiar ceremony. A little blind girl who resides near the Grand hotel with a family named Green, was the principal figure, and Ward came next. Acting upon the words found in James v. 14, the holiness people were attempting to restore her sight. The ceremony consisted of anointing her eyes and praying, while occasionally the people broke forth in song. A member of the congregation declared she could even now see a little, and it would not be long until she would be all right. This is not the first time, they say, miracles have been performed in the city, and a number of instances are given.

THEY WON.

A Dozen School Teachers Passed the Examination.

Superintendent Sanor was happy this afternoon when he completed the task of correcting the papers presented by the applicants at last week's examination, and found that a dozen had reached the required standard. They are:

Three years, Miss Cora Henry, Zanesville. Two years, Miss Kate S. Harker, Miss Grace Morgan, Miss Clara Williams, Miss Anna Thompson, Miss Ella Shaw and Mrs. Della Hayes. One year, Miss Lucile Jones, Washington C. H.; Miss Sue Esterly, Miss Maude Baum, Miss Ethel Moore and Miss Grace Gould.

A HORSE UNTIED THE ROPE,

And an Arc Light Was Mashed Into Small Bits.

A horse was tied to an electric light pole on Ravine street at noon. It became restless, and gnawed at the rope supporting the arc lamp. For a time no impression was made, but eventually the rope broke. Then the lamp fell to the street with a crash, and the company will have to buy another. This is not the first time the light company have had their property destroyed in this manner, and Superintendent McKeehan is looking for people who use poles as hitching places.

MADE A MISTAKE.

Curt Welch Realized No Great Amount From the Benefit Game.

Friends of the late Curt Welch called at this office today, and desired to contradict the statement of a local paper that Mrs. Welch had realized $300 from the benefit ball game of a few months ago. To the present time the lady has only received $55.55, far from the sum published on Saturday. W. Calhoun stated that the game made less than $75, and Mrs. Welch had been paid every cent in the hands of the committee. As soon as all returns are made she will be given the money.

Sued For an Account.

The Smith Lumber company entered suit this morning in the court of Squire Rose against William Senor for $23. Rent in the hands of Charles E. Macrum was attached by Constable Lyon.

This is the Week to prepare the boys for the reopening of school.

The little fellow will look back upon the hard times he imagined he was having by going to school and recall them as the golden opportunities of his life, just like some parents who let golden bargain opportunities pass unnoticed, such as offered here for today.

Seventy-five Suits, woolen goods, worth $3.00 to $5.00, short pants, sizes 6 to 15, we sell at $2.48

One hundred Suits, stylish mixtures, double and single breasted suits, worth $4.50, we sell at $3.48

Boys' Long Pants Suits, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00, $7.00.

Boy's Knee Pants.

SPECIAL BARGAINS—Boy's Woolen Pants, worth 75c, we sell at 48c; Boys' Woolen Pants, worth $1.00 and $1.25, we sell them at 72c. Boys' Caps, 23c, 25c, 37c, 48c. Largest stock in the city. See the new styles we just received in caps.

Headquarters for the boys for reopening of school.

JOSEPH BROS.

DEATH DELAYS ACTION.

Lobanoff's Demise Retards Move Against Turkey.

THE POWERS WILL HAVE TO ACT.

A Thorough Estimate Probable in Behalf of the Armenians—An American Bishop Opened the Czar's Eyes to the Horrible Atrocities.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to The Telegraph from Kiev says that Prince Lobanoff-Rostovsky, Russian minister of foreign affairs, died suddenly while traveling from Vienna to that place. Prince Lobanoff-Rostovsky was in the company of the czar at the time of his death and his demise was wholly without warning.

The tour which he had planned to take with the czar through the countries of Western Europe was expected to be most far reaching in results as to the settlement of the eastern question. Francis Joseph paid Prince Lobanoff-Rostovsky the highest honors during the recent visit of the czar to Vienna, and his death at the present juncture is regarded as a most dramatic and important event, upsetting as it does all possibilities of a conference between the foreign ministers of the great powers and compelling the czar to change the plans concerning his tour through Germany, France and England.

Prince Lobanoff's death will also interfere with the expected entente of the European powers in regard to the Armenians in Turkey.

The following dispatch written from Berlin before the news of the death of the Russian foreign minister shows how the situation stood: "The vexations and interminable eastern question, especially in its Armenian and Creton features, is to be the main subject of discussion between the Russian minister for foreign affairs, Prince Lobanoff-Rostovsky and Prince Hohenlohe, the imperial chancellor, and between the czar and Emperor William. A thorough entente between Russia and Germany is probable and it is expected that Prince Lobanoff-Rostovsky will arrive at Goerlitz with the entente of Austria on this subject in his pocket."

"During the week there has been a lively exchange of notes between Berlin, St. Petersburg and Vienna, and on Thursday, when the alarming news of the uprising in Constantinople was received, Prince Hohenlohe was communicated with on his estate at Worli."

The opinion prevails in diplomatic circles here that the Eastern question has now reached a point requiring vigorous and concerted action upon the part of Europe and that such action is imperative."

An American is responsible for the change in the czar's attitude.

At the beginning of this month Bishop Satterlee of Washington, on behalf of the Anglo-American committee, obtained personal audience with the czar and ezarina, and read to them a petition involving a full recital of the atrocities that have been committed upon the Armenians by the Turks, and through the czar's made no definite response the bishop saw evidence that he was hearing a good deal of this for the first time. Previously, the bishop had been warned by the palace officials that the mere mention of Armenians would suffice to prevent the czar from receiving him, but he stuck to his guns and even added references to Crete to his talk.

Three days later the bishop was received by the dowager empress, who revealed the fact that she had been told that the intrigue of American missionaries had made all the trouble in Armenia. She was greatly touched by the bishop's narrative, and when he spoke of the duty of Christian nations to interfere and stop these horrors she wrung her hands and cried: "Oh, if they only would."

ARMENIANS WON'T YIELD.

Determined the Powers Must Do Something For Them.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 31.—Just before the departure of the leaders of the invasion of the Ottoman bank on Sir Edgar Vincent's yacht, after they had negotiated with the Turkish officials and surrendered upon condition that they should be allowed to leave the country, they announced to the Dragomans of the different embassies that they intend to continue the agitation until the right of the Armenians should be recognized by the representatives of the foreign powers. Members of the different embassies have received another circular letter from the Armon-

G. A. R. AT ST. PAUL.

The City Decorated For the National Encampment.

COMMANDER WALKER IS THERE.

The First of the Receptions Will Occur Tonight—Major Clarkson and Admiral Meade Out For Commander-In-Chief. Campfires Tomorrow Evening.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 31.—From every house top in this city floats the red, white and blue banner that extends a greeting to the veterans who have already begun to arrive for the thirtieth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, while across the streets and up and down the wide avenues of the residence portion, and from top to bottom of the big offices buildings, in all manner of designs, may be seen the national colors.

The first of the important arrivals was at 7:40 this morning when Commander-in-Chief Walker and staff arrived on a special train and were given a cordial and official welcome by the local posts of the G. A. R. They were escorted to their headquarters at the Ryan and the work of the encampment will hereafter radiate from that center. This evening will occur the first of the receptions. There will be two of these, the most important being that to the commander-in-chief and staff at national headquarters from 8 o'clock in the evening until 10. From 7 till midnight the Minnesota Woman's Relief Corps will receive at the state capitol. The first illumination of the city in honor of the encampment will occur then and will then be continued every evening during the week.

With comparatively so few outsiders in the city there is less talk of the possible results of the encampment elections, but the Minnesota veterans are in evidence with some very pronounced ideas. The Minnesota veterans are almost solidly in favor of Major T. S. Clarkson of Omaha for commander-in-chief. Major Clarkson was a prominent candidate for the office last year. The final election of commander-in-chief in consideration of the next encampment and for the honor the only candidates yet mentioned are Buffalo and Denver. The encampment business sessions do not begin until Thursday.

Mrs. J. A. Logan, without whom no encampment has seemed complete to the old veterans, is already in the city visiting her daughter, who resides here, and will witness the parades and take part in all the encampment receptions. The campfires of the week will begin tomorrow evening, three being arranged for that night.

MEADE FOR COMMANDER.

Naval Veterans Urging Him As a Successor to Walker.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Admiral Richard W. Meade, late United States navy, on his arrival from Europe, left at once by special train for St. Paul to attend the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. The admiral will be welcomed at the encampment by the National Association of Naval Veterans, who are enthusiastically urging his election as commander-in-chief of the Grand Army, to succeed Major Walker of Indiana.

Admiral Meade, as commander of Lafayette post of New York city, represents one of the strongest departments east of the Alleghenies. He is a hero of the quarter-deck with 45 years of continuous service under the flag of the republic to his credit. From 1861 to 1865 he served in the squadrons of the North and South Atlantic, the upper Mississippi and the west gulf. Immediately upon his retirement from the navy last year he joined the ranks of the Grand Army, uniting with Lafayette post. The naval element of the Grand Army has never yet been honored by the selection of a commander-in-chief from its ranks.

MAJOR MCKINLEY'S SUNDAY.

He Heard Bishop Mills Preach—Several Delegations to Visit Him.

CANTON, O., Aug. 31.—Major McKinley attended services Sunday, accompanied by Hon. Ben Butterworth, who arrived from Washington and remained a guest at the McKinley home over Sunday, and Hon. Joseph P. Smith. He went to the First United Brethren church, where Bishop Mills of Iowa delivered the principal discourse. The first delegations announced for this week is that of the editors of West Virginia. They come tomorrow. Workmen of Lorain, O., have decided to visit Canton. There are 1,500 in the party, and they will be here the latter part of the week or the first of next. A notable delegation will be here on Saturday. It comes from Beaver, Pa., the home of Senator Quay. The senator himself is expected to head the delegation.

OLD EMPLOYEES HOLD ON.

A Court Decision in the Municipal Quarrel at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 31.—Mayor Todd and the board of aldermen escaped lightly at the hands of Judge Toney. They were arraigned for contempt of court in impeaching the board of public safety in the face of an injunction by Judge Toney. Instead of committing them to jail, as had been expected, Judge Toney gave them a week to undo their respectful actions.

The judge overruled the defendants' response as insufficient, saying that he did not wish to degrade them in the eyes of the people of the community, believing that what they did was done under the impression that they were acting in the right.

Attachments were issued returnable next Saturday, and the defendants were allowed to go on their own recognizance. In his opinion Judge Toney delivered a scathing arraignment of the attorney, L. Stone, who advised the mayor and aldermen, and also two newspapers which urged the arrest of Judge Toney for contempt of the board of aldermen.

After court had adjourned, Mayor Todd said to a reporter: "Judge Toney having given his decision in the matter, it is the intention of myself and friends to abide by it in every particular. The matter of an appeal to the court of appeals will not come up before Sept. 15, if then. The present employees will hold on at least until after the November election."

NEW MODE OF REFORM.

Drunks Rolled In an Oil Tank in West Virginia.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Aug. 31.—There being no lockup in the Waverly oil field, the drillers and town officers have hit upon a novel method of both sobering and punishing those arrested for intoxication. They have an immense empty oil tank, whose only opening is a hole through which a man can be easily passed.

This they lay on its side, while they put their prisoner into it, then place it on end. After the drillers get through their work at night they place a cap over the manhole, turn the tank again on its side and roll it up and down hill. One experience of this kind usually makes a teetotaler of the victim. On Saturday night last they had five men in the tank at one time.

An M. E. Minister Expelled.

DENVER, Aug. 31.—The Colorado Methodist Episcopal conference has expelled Rev. F. F. Passmore from the ministry because he accused Bishop Wagon of being a lecher with saloon-keepers and gamblers. Mr. Passmore takes the ground that in voting or working for Republican or Democratic tickets a minister of the gospel generally leagues himself with the saloon element.

Murderer Cut His Own Throat.

HINTON, W. Va., Aug. 31.—At Talcott, William Robbins, who shot and killed his 19-year-old daughter at that place, has cut his throat from ear to ear and will die. A posse was organized immediately after the crime was committed, pursued him into the mountains and were upon the point of capturing him when he cut his throat.

Still Importing Gold.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The treasury has lost $57,100 in gold coin and $10,400 in bars, which leaves the true amount of the gold reserve $101,693,075. The orders for gold coin imports amount to $2,500,000, making the total orders since the present movement began $13,500,000.

Election Excitement in Chile.

LIMA, Peru, Aug. 31.—The latest reports from Chile are to the effect that the registrars and election officials have resolved to attend and to take part in the meeting of congress called for today for the purpose of determining who has been elected president. There is considerable anxiety as to the result.

To Inquire Into Prison Management.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—The pitiable mental condition of recently released Irish political prisoners is resulting in demands for an inquiry into the prison system here, and the affair is likely to be a burning question in the next parliament.

Miners Strike Against a Reduction.

CHARLESTOWN, W. Va., Aug. 31.—Miners at Johnson's Crescent mines are on a strike against a 5-cent reduction on the ton, making the price 30 cents. A strike is expected at Edgewater and Powelltown.

A Prominent Man Suicides.

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 31.—Henry M. Cowan, aged 42, a prominent Mason and member of one of the most prominent families in the state, has committed suicide while temporarily insane.

NO GERMAN RITUAL.

A Final Decision by the Knights of Pythias Supreme Lodge.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 31.—The German ritual question has been disposed of finally by the supreme lodge of the Knights of Pythias. At the biennial meeting in Kansas City four years ago the use of the German ritual was forbidden. Since then a few lodges have continued to use it. At this session of the supreme lodge a request was preferred by three or four lodges, composed largely of Germans, for permission to use the German ritual.

At Saturday's session a resolution was offered by the representative from Washington, providing that all lodges which used the German ritual previous to the time when its use was forbidden be permitted to use it again. This resolution was referred to the German committee, which submitted a report adverse to the proposition. The report of the committee was sustained by a vote of 106 to 8.

Bad Tramp With a Gun.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 31.—John Miller, a tramp, entered the saloon of Andrew Bandley and ordered all to throw up their hands. Miller shot Bandley and Lawrence Vincent. Both are badly wounded. When Miller had emptied his revolver Peter Stein beat him with a club. Miller will die.

HAPPENED IN THIS STATE.

Lawrence Hall, aged 35, of 648 East Second street, Dayton, is missing.

The De Tray family in Tiffin has received word that the members are heirs to $30,000,000 in France.

The electric railway between New Philadelphia and Uhrichsville will be running by Sept. 10.

At the yearly meeting of Friends at Damascus the reports showed a steady growth of the denomination. There are 94 ministers and 135 elders.

Thomas E. Jones of Girard tried to board a moving freight train, but was thrown under the wheels and killed.

J. P. Salding fell down a stairway at his home at Zanesville and broke his neck. He was conversing with his wife, and caught his foot in the carpet on starting to descend.

The cornerstone of St. John's English Evangelical Lutheran church, on St. Clair street, Dayton, now in course of erection, was laid with becoming ceremonies Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Beatrice Rhodes, wife of John L. Rhodes, the telegraph operator for years connected with the Western Union office in Cincinnati, filed suit for divorce at Winchester, alleging cruelty, failure to provide, drunkenness and desertion.

Jacob Ewry, who conducts a small grocery on Fifth street, Dayton, locked up his place and went to the Greenville fair. Upon his return he found that his store had been entered during his absence and the stock of goods, furniture, etc., destroyed. It appears to have been a case of spite work.

Ella F. Wilson has filed a petition in which she seeks a divorce from her husband, George H., on the ground of alleged extreme cruelty, at Dayton. She says that defendant struck and beat her, drove her from the house and threatened to take her life.

At a meeting of the Dayton city council a petition was presented signed by several hundred bicyclists, protesting against the passage of the ordinance taxing all wheels $2 a year. The petitioners express the belief that to impose the wheel tax would be discriminating legislation without taxing bugles, carriages, etc.

Duke and Duchess to Entertain.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—A great feat will be given by the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough at Blenheim palace on Sept. 5 next to over 2,000 members of the associated conservative clubs from midland home counties and the metropolis.

A Bad Electrical Storm.

HOUGHTON, Mich., Aug. 31.—The worst electrical storm ever known in the copper district occurred. Joseph Rappa was killed in the Finnish church at Houghton. Various other casualties are recorded.

An Economical Cruiser.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—The new fighting cruiser Brooklyn has returned triumphant to her dock at Cramp's shipyard. Naval officers state that the result of observations show that the Brooklyn is the most economical cruiser afloat.

Choynski and Fitzsimmons.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—The National Athletic club has offered a $10,000 purse for a fight between Choynski and Fitzsimmons. Choynski said he would meet Fitzsimmons provided a permit for the fight could be secured.

Suspected of Flibustering.

BRUNSWICK, Ga., Aug. 31.—The tug Dauntless, supposed to have been on a filibustering expedition, has returned and is now detained at quarantine under orders from the treasury department.

VALUABLE OIL FIELD.

The Standard Oil Co. in Tennessee and Kentucky.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 31.—In the new oil fields of Tennessee and Southern Kentucky the Standard Oil company, the past week, completed two large storage tanks in the Obey river, 25 miles west of Rugby Road station, on the Queen and Crescent railroad, which will hold nearly 40,000 barrels. Oil lines are laid to the wells within a few miles of the tanks, which include the Bobs Bar well, which opened up the field by making a flow of a barrel a minute of oil worth $1.15 per barrel. The other wells are the Lacy, the Rockhouse, Bolles, Azot and Stone Nos. 1 and 2, beside 20 wells now drilling near the Bobs Bar well.

The field has its center at the junction of Fentress, Rickett and Overton counties and runs across the Kentucky line into Wayne county, Ky., and adjoining counties. The Standard Oil company, operating under the names of the Forest Oil company and the South Penn Oil company, leases 800,000 acres of land and have 200,000 in free. It has surveyed a pipeline

New Review
LEADING DAILY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY.
PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY BY
THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY.
HARRY PALMER, Manager and Proprietor.
[Entered as second class matter at the East Liverpool, O., postoffice.]
TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:
(Postage free in United States and Canada.)
One Year In Advance $5.00
Three Months " 1.50
By the Week " 1.35
EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, AUGUST 31.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President,
WILLIAM McKINLEY,
OF OHIO.

For Vice President,
GARRET A. HOBART,
OF NEW JERSEY.

For Electors at Large,
ISAAC F. MACK,
ALBERT C. DOUGLASS,
For Secretary of State,
CHARLES KINNEY.

For Judge of Supreme Court,
MARSHALL J. WILLIAMS.
For Member of Board of Public Works,
FRANK HUFFMAN.

For Congress,
ROBERT W. TAYLOR.

For Judge of the Circuit Court,
J. B. BURROWS.

For Judge of Common Pleas Court,
F. M. SMITH.

For Probate Judge,
J. C. BOONE.

For Clerk of Courts,
JOHN S. M'NUTT.

For Recorder,
ED. M. CROSSLER.

For Commissioner,
CHRIS. BOWMAN.

For Inferior Director,
L. C. HOOPER.

For Coroner,
JOHN L. STRAUGHN.

To a man up a tree it seems as though Wellsville is one of the places Mr. Potts will not carry next November.

MR. BRYAN is in Ohio today, and hundreds of people are gazing on him as they would gaze upon a well formed circus or a wild eyed freak of nature.

The star eyed goddess of reform must give up her vacation this year if Colonel Watterson is made the presidential candidate of the gold Democrats.

UNCLE SAM will have to forego the pleasure of watching a political campaign long enough to give General Wey-ler a sound spanking if Americans in Cuba are not given more consideration.

SOME NEW YORK chap has set the day of judgment for next Wednesday. He should have named the time as November, and applied his prophecy to free silver people, if he wanted to be accurate.

RAILROAD MEN IN POLITICS.

The railroad men of the country are teaching all other branches of labor a valuable lesson. Realizing the importance of a Republican victory in November they are organizing in the cause of sound money, and using their every influence for the movement which means their bread and butter. Wellsville, like many other railroad towns, has come to the front with a well organized McKinley club, and those enterprising employes of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh at the head of the movement are responsible for the assertion that the ranks are not yet full. A competent authority says there are 250 to 300 railroad voters in Wellsville, and of this number 151 signed the roll of the club on Saturday.
Others have been received since that time, and the membership is now 200.

It will not stop, they say, until every railroad, except the men who would not change their opinion even though they knew they were voting their daily bread away, is in the organization. They know they are right, and feel the necessity of standing shoulder to shoulder with all other men whose patriotism and business compels a defense against the cheap free silver orators, who are in the work of moulding public opinion so it will bring gold to the pockets of millionaire miners. Good for Wells-ville.

When You Take Your Vacation

The most necessary article to have with you (after your pocketbook) is a bottle of Foley's Colic and Diarrhoea cure. It is an absolute prevention or cure of all derangements of the bowels caused by a change of water. You are likely to need it.

For sale at Bulger's and Reed's drug stores.

This is the Week to prepare the boys for the reopening of school.

The little fellow will look back upon the hard times he imagined he was having by going to school and recall them as the golden opportunities of his life, just like some parents who let golden bargain opportunities pass unnoticed, such as offered here for today.

Seventy-five Suits, woolen goods, worth $3 00 to $3 50, short pants, sizes 6 to 15, we sell at $2.48.

One hundred Suits, stylish mixtures, double and single breasted suits, worth $4 50, we sell at $3.48.

Boys' Long Pants Suits, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00, $7.00.

Boy's Knee Pants.

SPECIAL BARGAINS—Boy's Woolen Pants, worth 75c, we sell at 48c; Boys' Woolen Pants, worth $1 00 and
$1 25, we sell them at 72c. Boys' Caps, 23c, 25c, 37c, 48c. Largest stock in the city. See the new styles we just received in caps.

Headquarters for the boys for reopening of school.

JOSEPH BROS.

DEATH DELAYS ACTION.

Lobanoff's Demise Retards Move Against Turkey.

THE POWERS WILL HAVE TO ACT.

A Thorough Entente Probable In Behalf of the Armenians—An American Bishop Opened the Czar's Eyes to the Horrible Atrocities.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to The Telegraph from Kieff says that Prince Lobanoff-Rostovsky, Russian minister of foreign affairs, died suddenly while traveling from Vienna to that place.
Prince Lobanoff-Rostovsky was in the company of the czar at the time of his death and his demise was wholly without warning.

The tour which he had planned to take with the czar through the countries of Western Europe was expected to be most far reaching in results as to the settlement of the eastern question.
Francis Joseph paid Prince Lobanoff-Rostovsky the highest honors during the recent visit of the czar to Vienna, and his death at the present juncture is regarded as a most dramatic and important event, upsetting as it does all possibilities of a conference between the foreign ministers of the great powers and compelling the czar to change the plans concerning his tour through Germany, France and England.

Prince Lobanoff's death will also interfere with the expected entente of the European powers in regard to the Armenians in Turkey.

The following dispatch written from Berlin before the news of the death of the Russian foreign minister shows how the situation stood: "The vexations and interminable eastern question, especially in its Armenian and Cretan features, is to be the main subject of discussion between the Russian minister for foreign affairs, Prince Lobanoff-Rostovsky and Prince Hohenlohe, the imperial chancellor, and between the czar and Emperor William. A thorough entente between Russia and Germany is probable and it is expected that Prince Lobanoff-Rostovsky will arrive at Goerlitz with the entente of Austria on this subject in his pocket.

"During the week there has been a lively exchange of notes between Berlin, St. Petersburg and Vienna, and on Thursday, when the alarming news of the uprising in Constantinople was received, Prince Hohenlohe was communicated with on his estate at Worik.

The opinion prevails in diplomatic circles here that the Eastern question has now reached a point requiring vigorous and concerted action upon the part of Europe and that such action is imperative."

An American is responsible for the change in the czar's attitude.

At the beginning of this month Bishop Satterlee of Washington, on behalf of the Anglo-American committee, obtained personal audience with the czar and czarina, and read to them a petition involving a full recital of the atrocities that have been committed upon the Armenians by the Turks, and though the czar made no definite response the bishop saw evidences that he was hearing a good deal of this for the first time. Previously, the bishop had been warned by the palace officials that any mention of Armenians would suffice to prevent the czar from receiving him, but he stuck to his guns and even added references to Crete to his talk.

Three days later the bishop was received by the dowager empress, who revealed the fact that she had been told that the intrigue of American missionaries had made all the trouble in Armenia. She was greatly touched by the bishop's narrative, and when he spoke of the duty of Christian nations to interfere and stop these horrors she wrung her hands and cried: "Oh, if they only would."

ARMENIANS WON'T YIELD.

Determined the Powers Must Do Something For Them.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 31.—Just before the departure of the leaders of the invasion of the Ottoman bank on Sir Edgar Vincent's yacht, after they had negotiated with the Turkish officials and surrendered upon condition that they should be allowed to leave the country, they announced to the Dragomans of the different embassies that they intend to continue the agitation until the right of the Armenians should be recognized by the representatives of the foreign powers. Members of the different embassies have received another circular letter from the Armeian revolutionary committee making a similar announcement. It will be remembered that several days before the raid upon the Ottoman bank by the Armenians threatening letters of a similar character were received by the representatives of the powers, but the foreign diplomats stationed in Constani-nople paid no attention to these warnings.

As an indication of the number of persons who perished in the recent riots, it is stated that 700 dead bodies were buried in the Chickli cemetery alone. The British charge d'affaires, Michael Herbert, has made special representation to Tewfik Pasha, Turkish minister of foreign affairs, concerning the case of two Armenians who were brutally killed just in front of the guard house and before the eyes of the members of the British embassy.

More rioting has occurred in the Galata quarter of this city. A sharp fusillade took place between the troops and Armenian rioters. It lasted only a few minutes, however, and a stampede of revolutionists followed.

The ambassadors of the foreign powers held a conference and sent a strong joint appeal asking the sultan to suppress the disorders without delay. No reply has been received from the sublime porte as yet.

A Victory Claimed by Spaniards.

MADRID, Aug. 31.—Official telegrams received here from Captain General Blanco, governor of the Philippine Islands, announces that 1,000 rebels took the field against the Spanish forces for the purpose of bringing about a revolution. The insurgents were badly armed and easily defeated. Troops are now in pursuit of the fugitives.

SATURDAY'S LEAGUE GAMES.

Baltimore, 11; Pittsburgh, 5.
Cleveland, 3; New York, 1.
New York, 4; Cleveland, 1.
Brooklyn, 5; St. Louis, 2.
Chicago, 13; Washington, 9.
Philadelphia, 5; Cincinnati, 4.
Boston, 16; Louisville, 6.

Games Scheduled Today.

Cleveland at New York; Pittsburgh at Baltimore; Cincinnati at Philadelphia; Chicago at Washington; Louisville at Boston; St.
Louis at Brooklyn.

Standing of the Clubs.

W	L	Pe	W	L	Pe
Baltimore	74	31	62	Brooklyn	52	56	48
Cincinnati	69	30	53	Phila.	52	57	47
Cleveland	65	42	46	New York	52	59	46
Chicago	64	47	57	Wash.	42	64	36
Boston	59	49	54	St. Louis	34	74	31
Pittsburg	58	49	52	Louisville	27	79	25

Yesterday's Interstate League Games.

At Toledo—Toledo, 27 runs, 13 hits, 2 errors; Washington, 1 run, 4 hits, 13 errors. Batteries—Dismore, J. Sowers and Cargo; Mitchell, Ferguson and Arthur.

At Toledo—Second game—Toledo, 15 runs, 15 hits, 2 errors; Washington, 7 runs, 12 hits, 7 errors. Batteries—Dismore and Mitchell; Kelb and Arthur.

Saturday's Interstate Games.

Wheeling, 11; Jackson, 4.
St. Wayne, 8; New Castle, 3.
Toledo, 13; Youngstown, 4.
Washington, 11; Saginaw, 5.

Interstate Games Scheduled Today.

Washington at Toledo; Wheeling at St.
Wayne; New Castle at Jackson and Youngstown at Saginaw.

Interstate League Standing.

W	L	Pe	W	L	Pe
Youngstown	25	9	35	New Castle	18	47
Wheeling	15	14	54	Washington	12	22
St. Wayne	16	16	50	Saginaw	11	24

G. A. R. AT ST. PAUL.

The City Decorated For the National Encampment.

COMMANDER WALKER IS THERE.

The First of the Receptions Will Occur
Tonight—Major Clarkson and Admiral Meade Out For Commander-In-Chief.
Campfires Tomorrow Evening.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 31.—From every house top in this city floats the red, white and blue banner that extends a greeting to the veterans who have already begun to arrive for the thirtieth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, while across the streets and up and down the wide avenues of the residence portion, and from top to bottom of the big offices buildings, in all manner of designs, may be seen the national colors.

The first of the important arrivals was at 7:40 this morning when Commander-in-Chief Walker and staff arrived on a special train and were given a cordial and official welcome by the local posts of the G. A. R. They were escorted to their headquarters at the Ryan and the work of the encampment will hereafter radiate from that center.

This evening will occur the first of the receptions. There will be two of these, the most important being that to the commander-in-chief and staff at national headquarters from 8 o'clock in the evening until 10. From 7 till midnight the Minnesota Woman's Relief Corps will receive at the state capital.
The first illumination of the city in honor of the encampment will occur then and will then be continued every evening during the week.

With comparatively so few outsiders in the city there is less talk of the possible results of the encampment elections, but the Minnesota veterans are in evidence with some very pronounced ideas. The Minnesota veterans are almost solidly in favor of Major T. S.
Clarkson of Omaha for commander-in-chief. Major Clarkson was a prominent candidate for the office last year.
The final election of commander-in-chief is considerably affected by the fight for location of the next encampment and for the honor the only candidates yet mentioned are Buffalo and Denver. The encampment business sessions do not begin until Thursday.

Mrs. J. A. Logan, without whom no encampment has seemed complete to the old veterans, is already in the city visiting her daughter, who resides here, and will witness the parades and take part in all the encampment receptions.
The campfires of the week will begin tomorrow evening, three being arranged for that night.

MEADE FOR COMMANDER.

Naval Veterans Urging Him As a Successor to Walker.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Admiral Richard W. Meade, late United States navy, on his arrival from Europe, left at once by special train for St. Paul to attend the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. The admiral will be welcomed at the encampment by the National Association of Naval Veterans, who are enthusiastically urging his election as commander-in-chief of the Grand Army, to succeed Major Walker of Indiana.
Admiral Meade, as commander of Lafayette post of New York city, represents one of the strongest departments east of the Alleghenies.

He is a hero of the quarter-deck with 45 years of continuous service under the flag of the republic to his credit.
From 1861 to 1865 he served in the squadrons of the North and South Atlantic, the upper Mississippi and the west gulf. Immediately upon his retirement from the navy last year he joined the ranks of the Grand Army, uniting with Lafayette post. The naval element of the Grand Army has never yet been honored by the selection of a commander-in-chief from its ranks.

MAJOR MCKINLEY'S SUNDAY.

He Heard Bishop Mills Preach—Several Delegations to Visit Him.

CANTON, O., Aug. 31.—Major McKinley attended services Sunday, accompanied by Hon. Ben Butterworth, who arrived from Washington and remained a guest at the McKinley home over Sunday, and Hon. Joseph P. Smith.
He went to the First United Brethren church, where Bishop Mills of Iowa delivered the principal discourse.

The first delegations announced for this week is that of the editors of West Virginia. They come tomorrow.
Workmen of Lorain, O., have decided to visit Canton. There are 1,500 in the party, and they will be here the latter part of the week or the first of next. A notable delegation will be here on Saturday. It comes from Beaver, Pa., the home of Senator Quay.

The senator himself is expected to head the delegation.

OLD EMPLOYEES HOLD ON.

A Court Decision In the Municipal Quarrel at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 31.—Mayor Todd and the board of aldermen escaped lightly at the hands of Judge Toney.
They were arraigned for contempt of court in impeaching the board of public safety in the face of an injunction by Judge Toney. Instead of committing them to jail, as had been expected, Judge Toney gave them a week to undo their respectful actions.

The judge overruled the defendants' response as insufficient, saying that he did not wish to degrade them in the eyes of the people of the community, believing that what they did was done under the impression that they were acting in the right.

Attachments were issued returnable next Saturday, and the defendants were allowed to go on their own recognizance. In his opinion Judge Toney delivered a scathing arraignment of the mayor and aldermen, and also two newspapers which urged the arrest of Judge Toney for contempt of the board of aldermen.

After court had adjourned, Mayor Todd said to a reporter: "Judge Toney having given his decision in the matter, it is the intention of myself and friends to abide by it in every particular. The matter of an appeal to the court of appeals will not come up before Sept. 15, if then. The present employees will hold on at least until after the November election."

NEW MODE OF REFORM.

Drunkards Rolled In an Oil Tank In West Virginia.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Aug. 31.—
There being no lockup in the Waverly oil field, the drillers and town officers have hit upon a novel method of both sobering and punishing those arrested for intoxication. They have an immense empty oil tank, whose only opening is a hole through which a man can be easily passed.

This they lay on its side while they put their prisoner into it, then place it on end. After the drillers get through their work at night they place a cap over the manhole, turn the tank again on its side and roll it up and down hill.
One experience of this kind usually makes a teetotaler of the victim. On Saturday night last they had five men in the tank at one time.

An M. E. Minister Expelled.

DENVER, Aug. 31.—The Colorado Methodist Episcopal conference has expelled Rev. F. F. Passmore from the ministry because he accused Bishop Warren of being in league with saloon-keepers and gamblers. Mr. Passmore takes the ground that in voting or working for Republican or Democratic tickets a minister of the gospel generally leagues himself with the saloon element.

Murderer Cut His Own Throat.

HINTON, W. Va., Aug. 31.—At Talcott, William Robbins, who shot and killed his 19-year-old daughter at that place, has cut his throat from ear to ear and will die. A posse was organized immediately after the crime was committed, pursued him into the mountains and were upon the point of capturing him when he cut his throat.

Still Importing Gold.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The treasury has lost $57,100 in gold coin and $10, 400 in bars, which leaves the true amount of the gold reserve $101,683, 075. The orders for gold coin imports amount to $2,500,000, making the total orders since the present movement began $18,500,000.

Election Excitement In Chile.

LIMA, Peru, Aug. 31.—The latest reports from Chile are to the effect that the registrars and election officials have resolved to attend and to take part in the meeting of congress called for today for the purpose of determining who has been elected president. There is considerable anxiety as to the result.

To Inquire Into Prison Management.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—The pitiable mental condition of recently released Irish political prisoners is resulting in demands for an inquiry into the prison system here, and the affair is likely to be a burning question in the next parliament.

Miners Strike Against a Reduction.

CHARLESTOWN, W. Va., Aug. 31.— Miners at Johnson's Crescent mines are on a strike against a 5-cent reduction on the ton, making the price 30 cents. A strike is expected at Edgewater and Powelltown.

A Prominent Man Suicides.

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 31.—Henry M.
Cowan, aged 42, a prominent Mason and member of one of the most prominent families in the state, has committed suicide while temporarily insane.

NO GERMAN RITUAL.

A Final Decision by the Knights of Pythias Supreme Lodge.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 31.—The German ritual question has been disposed of finally by the supreme lodge of the Knights of Pythias. At the biennial meeting in Kansas City four years ago the use of the German ritual was for-bidden. Since then a few lodges have continued to use it. At this session of the supreme lodge a request was preferred by three or four lodges, composed largely of Germans, for permission to use the German ritual.

At Saturday's session a resolution was offered by the representative from Washington, providing that all lodges which used the German ritual previous to the time when its use was forbidden be permitted to use it again. This resolution was referred to the German committee, which submitted a report adverse to the proposition. The report of the committee was sustained by a vote of 106 to 8.

Bad Tramp With a Gun.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 31.—John Miller, a tramp entered the saloon of Andrew Bandley and ordered all to throw up their hands. Miller shot Bandley and Lawrence Vincent. Both are badly wounded. When Miller had emptied his revolver Peter Stein beat him with a club. Miller will die.

HAPPENED IN THIS STATE.

Lawrence Hall, aged 35, of 648 East
Second street, Dayton, is missing.

The De Tray family in Tiffin has received word that the members are heirs to $30,000,000 in France.

The electric railway between New Philadelphia and Uhrichsville will be running by Sept. 10.

At the yearly meeting of Friends at Damasus the reports showed a steady growth of the denomination. There are 94 ministers and 185 elders.

Thomas E. Jones of Girard tried to board a moving freight train, but was thrown under the wheels and killed.

J. P. Spalding fell down a stairway at his home at Zanesville and broke his neck. He was conversing with his wife, and caught his foot in the carpet on starting to descend.

The cornerstone of St. John's English Evangelical Lutheran church, on St. Clair street, Dayton, now in course of erection, was laid with becoming ceremonies Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Beatrice Rhodes, wife of John L. Rhodes, the telegraph operator for years connected with the Western Union office in Cincinnati, filed suit for divorce at Winchester, alleging cruelty, failure to provide, drunkenness and desertion.

Jacob Ewry, who conducts a small grocery on Fifth street, Dayton, locked up his place and went to the Greenville fair. Upon his return he found that his store had been entered during his absence and the stock of goods, furniture, etc., destroyed. It appears to have been a case of spite work.

Ella F. Wilson has filed a petition in which she seeks a divorce from her husband, George H., on the ground of alleged extreme cruelty, at Dayton. She says that defendant struck and beat her, drove her from the house and threatened to take her life.

At a meeting of the Dayton city council a petition was presented signed by several hundred bicyclists, protesting against the passage of the ordinance taxing all wheels $2 a year. The petitioners express the belief that to impose the wheel tax would be discriminating legislation without taxing buggies, carriages, etc.

Duke and Duchess to Entertain.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—A great fete will be given by the Duke and Duchess of Marborough at Blenheim palace on Sept. 5 next to over 2,000 members of the associated conservative clubs from midland home counties and the metropolis.

A Bad Electrical Storm.

BOUGHTON, Mich., Aug. 31.—The worst electrical storm ever known in the copper district occurred. Joseph Rippa was killed in the Finnish church at Halcok. Various other casualties are recorded.

An Economical Cruiser.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—The new fighting cruiser Brooklyn has returned triumphant to her dock at Cramp's ship yard. Naval officers state that the result of observations show that the Brooklyn is the most economical cruiser afloat.

Choynski and Fitzsimmons.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—The National Athletic club has offered a $10, 000 purse for a fight between Choynski and Fitzsimmons. Choynski said he would meet Fitzsimmons provided a permit for the fight could be secured.

Suspected of Filibustering.

Thousands of Pairs of Shoes = AT COST. =

Our Special Sale will close in a few days, and the people who bought know that they bought better shoes for less money than they ever did, as we must close them out. If your size is here, you can buy Tan Shoes for the price of the leather, without paying for the making.

Leading Shoe House, W. H. GASS.
220 Diamond.

MAY BE WATTERSON.

A Strong Favorite For Gold Democratic Nomination.

CLEVELAND WOULD BE THE MAN

If He Would Only Give the Word, But Nothing Has Been Heard From the President—Tariff For Revenue Only Plank to Be Adopted.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 31.—On Wednesday the gold Democrats are to assemble here in opposition to the action of the Democracy at Chicago and launch the new party in the troubled sea of politics, but few of the outward manifestations of an approaching national convention. The hotel corridors, which usually swarm and seethe with politicians and guests on the eve of a national convention, are barren and deserted. A few of the managers are on the ground and the advance guard of the newspaper men is already here, but the delegates have not yet begun to put in an appearance. In the nature of things, however, this would be the case, as there is no division as the purpose of the convention and no scramble after the nomination.

The managers express themselves as more than satisfied with the outlook and say they expect delegations from 42 states and territories to be present. When the movement was originally started there seemed to be a division of sentiment as to whether a ticket should be placed in the field.

As the movement grew, however, and obtained what was considered, at least, as the tacit approval of the administration the feeling that a ticket should be placed in the field for the gold Democrats to rally around grew stronger, and it is accepted as a foregone conclusion that standard-bearers will be named.

The managers have practically decided upon the adoption as their emblem for the ballots the head of Jefferson and they expect to frame a platform, which besides repudiating the Chicago platform and nominees, will clearly enunciate and reiterate Democratic doctrines as set forth in former platforms. The prevailing sentiment favors a particularly long plank in favor of a tariff for revenue only. As to the candidates, it is possible that quite a contest will be developed. Quite a number of states have instructed, Wisconsin for Bragg; Nebraska and Michigan for Vilas, Missouri for Broadhead, and others for favorite sons, but the gossip here so far seems largely confined to Senator Vilas and Henry Watterson.

The latter from his far off sojourn in Switzerland has cabled his willingness to accept and make the fight if named. He was one of the first of the Democrats of national prominence who advised the rejection of the Chicago platform and the nomination of an independent ticket. From Geneva three days after the convention he sent a cable to this effect. Ex-Mayor John P. Hopkins of Chicago is here and is out strongly for Watterson and it is believed that the Kentucky delegations will be here in force for the "Star-Eyed Goddess." Senator Vilas, somewhat regarded as the administration's candidate, and it is said that General Bragg, for whom the Wisconsin delegation is instructed, would willingly step out of the way. What warrant there is for the assertion, that Vilas is the administration's candidate, does not appear here. He has announced his intention of retiring from the senate at the end of his present term and could, it is said, afford to make the sacrifice from a personal standpoint.

It is conceded on all hands that if Mr. Cleveland would accept the nomination it would be tendered him unanimously. Mr. Bryan said that he would unquestionably be the strongest man, but that Mr. Cleveland had given no word. Although it is generally understood that the president is in full sympathy with the convention and its purposes nothing has yet been received from him. The arrival of Secretary Morton, who will probably be the only member of his official family here and of Comptroller Eckels, is therefore looked forward to anxiously. It is not regarded as improbable that some sort of utterance will come from the president before the convention meets or while it is in session.

Should Vilas or almost anyone except Watterson be nominated for president, it is thought that Simon Bolivar Buckner of Kentucky will be nominated for vice president. Ex-Governor Flower of New York has telegraphed his acceptance of the post of temporary chairman and it is practically decided that Senator Caffery of Louisiana will be permanent chairman of the convention.

In order to give the public an opportunity to listen to the oratory a mass-meeting will be held on Wednesday night, which will be addressed by Colonel John R. Fellows and other prominent orators.

AT CLEVELAND TONIGHT.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Left Lake Chautauqua Today.

LAKEWOOD, N. Y., Aug. 31.—Mr. and Mrs. Bryan, after being guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Mack of Buffalo at their summer cottage over night, made a brief visit to the assembly grounds, on Chautauqua lake. After a speech at Ripley, they left for Cleveland, where Mr. Bryan speaks tonight.

Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs. Bryan attended the First Presbyterian church at Jamestown.

Mr. Bryan spoke Saturday night in the convention hall at Celeron, on Lake Chautauqua. The determination of twice as many people as the hall could hold to hear the presidential candidate resulted in a crush which would have ended in great loss of life if the panic which for half an hour seemed imminent had not been prevented. The hall contains seats for 8,000 people, but fully 12,000 were packed into its frail walls, fighting for more standing room an hour before the speaking.

The starting of an overflow meeting by Congressman Sibley on the outside probably prevented a panic.

A GOLD CONVENTION.

New Democratic Party Formed In West Virginia.

WHEELING, Aug. 31.—At the state convention of the West Virginia gold standard Democrats held in this city 300 delegates from 35 counties of the state were enrolled. The platform introduced by the resolutions committee, which declares for the gold standard, was adopted. The great majority, which opposed the '92 platform, which had many advocates, based its opposition on the fact that it is subject to two different interpretations. The platform also praises President Cleveland's administration as wise and patriotic.

A prominent figure in the convention was W. H. Wilson, Postmaster General Wilson's son. Delegates were chosen to represent the state in the Indianapolis convention of the national Democratic party and presidential electors named.

The question of an endorsement of the free silver Democratic state ticket was to have come up, but was referred to the next committee. Some of the leaders will oppose an endorsement.

DRUMMERS AND GERMANS.

Two Big Delegations Visited McKinley Saturday.

CANTON, O., Aug. 31.—Saturday was drummers' day at Major McKinley's home, and the Chicago commercial travelers to the number of 500 were received by him. G. J. Carey, chairman of the national railroad committee of the commercial men's organization of the United States, was the spokesman and made a brief but effective address, to which Major McKinley replied.

The second delegation was composed of 1,000 German-Americans of Cleveland, bringing with them the First Artillery band of Ohio. Colonel John Smith and Captain Edward Bohm made speeches and Major McKinley replied.

Employees of the Dueber-Hampden works were also visitors.

WREATH ON GRANT'S TOMB.

Li Hung Chang Placed One There—Visited Colonel Grant.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Li Hung Chang spent Sunday quietly at the Waldorf. In the morning he received his old friend, Colonel Forrester, and afterward a delegation of Mott street merchants paid their respects to the viceroy.

In the afternoon Li Hung Chang visited Grant's tomb, on which he laid a wreath of flowers, winding up the day by a visit to the house of Colonel Fred D. Grant, where he had tea and remained for an hour.

Smirching the Supreme Court.

"The supreme court of the United States is a pure and able tribunal, the highest judicial tribunal in the world; I will not help smirch it."

Thus spoke Senator Edward O. Wolcott of Colorado, an able and eloquent Republican advocate of the free coinage of silver, in refusing to follow the free silver sentiment in his state in supporting Bryan and Sewall.

The Chicago platform manifests a clear purpose to procure a reversal of the income tax decision by appointing new judges who will vote for such reversal.

Under the Bryan regime the federal judges are to be selected, not with sole reference to character and fitness and legal ability, but with reference to their opinions, ascertained in advance, concerning the most important questions of law.

Mr. Bryan is the declared enemy of the federal judiciary. "Plutocracy," he says, "is entrenched behind our judicial system." We believe the truth to be very different. We are convinced that if there is any distinction in the general administration of justice in this country it is in favor of the poor rather than the rich. But, however it may be in regard to other tribunals, the supreme court of the United States is free from reproach in the estimation of all mankind save the followers of Bryan. It was reserved for them to try to tarnish its fair fame.

We are confident that the conservative and thoughtful voters throughout the Union will refuse to help in the operation.—N. Y. Sun.

Democratic Bolting Papers.

The list of Democratic and Independent newspapers that have bolted the Chicago platform for sound money, and in most cases are outspoken for McKinley and Hobart, now numbers 160. Not even the war of the rebellion created so remarkable a turnover.

The News Review for news.

Some Fearful Moments.

During the late war between China and Japan we heard often of wonderful acts of bravery performed by the Japanese, but tales of Chinese bravery were few and far between. The following story, however, which appears to be told by an eyewitness, is enough to show that the Chinese had at least one officer who was no coward.

The deposed viceroy, Li Hung Chang, and the committee appointed by the government to investigate the reasons of defeat at the battle of Port Arthur met in the city of Peking. Among the charges was one of poor gunnery brought against Captain Le Chen Fue, who had commanded the Yen Tse Chang, one of the largest battleships that escaped from the action without great damage.

After Li Hung Chang had read the charges in full the accused captain rose and requested that a dozen shells be brought from his vessel. This was done, and the shells were set in a row before the committee.

Le Chen Fue then stepped forward, and drawing his sword said, "Can you wonder that we were defeated when our shells were like these?"

As he spoke and before any one could stop him he raised his sword and brought it down on the shell in front of him. The shell was split in two, and sawdust and red brick dust flew all about.

Then in rapid succession he struck shell after shell. Nobody moved, we were so surprised and frightened. I remember thinking that if the last one proved a good one there would be none of us left to tell the tale; but, no, that was like all the others—a sham.

As he finished Le Chen Fue laid his sword at the feet of Li Hung Chang, and as soon as that statesman could speak he dismissed the charges.

Valuable Dog.

Some tribes of American Indians are said to be highly expert at feats of jugglery. Other tribes seem to be almost unacquainted with such tricks, if we are to credit a story said to have been told by a military officer at Fort Sill and reported by the Buffalo Express.

Professor McAllister, the magician, once visited a camp of River Crows on the Yellowstone, and after extracting various packs of cards and other articles from the ears, necks, noses and garments of the astonished Indians was invited to a big feast of roast dog and other delicacies.

Chief Two Belly was so impressed by the great medicine powers of the professor that he took him to his wigwam, introduced him to his daughter, Miss Weista-Neeta (meaning wildcat) and offered her to him for a wife at the low price of two ponies.

The feast and daughter were both declined, but as McAllister was leaving the topee he spied a lean, yellow cur. He asked Chief Two Belly how much he would take for the dog, at the same time stroking the brute down the back and each time taking a handful of money from the end of his tail.

"Him very valuable dog," said McAllister, picking a coin out of the dog's eye and another out of his nose. "Two ponies for him, chief."

The Indians, with eyes as big as saucers, stood in awe and astonishment and shook their heads. After McAllister had gone they carried the poor dog down to the river and cut him open, but the goose had no golden egg, and they went slowly back to camp as completely dumfounded and as solemn as human beings can possibly be.

Compromising With Conscience.

He was a mean creature, and to his meanness was added such designing wickedness as is rarely shown by man. He went into a newspaper office the other morning and offered the following advertisement for publication:

"Notice.—If the plain looking woman, about 40 years of age, who lost a pocketbook containing $2 12s. 6d. in S— street on Tuesday afternoon will apply to —, she can have the money by paying for this advertisement."

The mean wretch had seen the lady drop the pocketbook and wished to retain the contents for himself. He was of opinion that no woman would answer the advertisement, as he had worded it, for so small a sum as $2 12s. 6d. He was correct.—Pearson's Weekly.

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—Joe Patchen, the champion racing stallion, has been matched against W. Hamilton, the bicyclist, who holds most of the unplaced records, for a race at Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 19, mile heats, best two in three, for a purse of $2,000.

A Brilliant Military Review.

VIENNA, Aug. 31.—A brilliant military review in honor of the czar and zarina has been given. Emperor Francis Joseph led his own dragon regiment before the czar, and the latter then led the infantry regiment before the emperor.

Satoli's Successor Arrives Sept. 20.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Cardinal Satoli has received word from Rome that his successor, Father Sebastian Martinelli, now prior general of the Augustinians, will arrive in Washington on or about Sept. 20.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Elden—a daughter.

The Columbian club will entertain friends this evening.

The Federal Labor union will meet this evening to transact important business.

A set of tools to be used in drilling for oil near Hookstown arrived here this morning.

C. H. Fleming left this morning on an eastern trip in the interest of the Burford pottery.

While switching in the Wellsville yards last evening a caboose was badly wrecked by a collision.

Dick Sutton has gone to Woodfield, where he will take a place behind the counter of a leading hotel.

Councilman Ashbaugh left for the east this morning on a trip in the interest of the West End pottery.

D. J. Smith will talk to the people of Hookstown next Thursday evening about the fallacy of free silver.

The shoemakers will meet this evening, and arrange for the part they will take in the Labor day exercises.

A prominent resident of Wellsville stated last night that Democrats were very scarce in that place just now.

Mr. Irvin Dunlap and Miss Bernice Dunlap will go to Cleveland next Thursday where they will enter a college.

Miss Janet Robbins will entertain in honor of her ninth anniversary at her home on Sheridan avenue, this evening.

The business portion of the city was crowded with people on Saturday night, but merchants were not satisfied with the trade.

Capt. Will Hill captured a blacksnake four feet in length at Beaver creek yesterday, and has placed it on exhibition in a glass jar.

The family of N. T. Ashbaugh moved today from Spring Grove to the city. There are now but four Liverpool families at the grounds.

The reunion of the Rechabites held this evening promises to be well attended, and undoubtedly will prove an event long to be remembered.

The family of William Hargreaves, of the East End, who have been spending the summer on Beaver creek, returned home Saturday afternoon.

George Dunlap, Will Congleton and Bert Asken, three young men of Cleveland, came to the city on their wheels Saturday, and are the guests of Irvin Dunlap.

A stranger signed himself on the register of a leading hotel this morning as coming from Cuba, and before the joke was discovered all the reporters in town were hunting him.

The East Liverpool club have cancelled their engagement with Greensburg, and that town will not see one of the best amateur teams in Ohio play ball. Some leading players could not leave their work.

A party of ten people left this morning for a two weeks' camp at Echo Dell. Several hundred blue rocks and live pigeons were taken with them, and a number of shoots will be held while they are in camp.

Mrs. Ann Bourne, an aged lady residing on Greasy street, was stricken with paralysis Saturday evening. The lady has had several attacks of this kind recently, and this last one may prove of a serious nature.

"What makes the river so blue?" asked one resident of another, as they looked upon the unnatural color of the water. "The packets are not running, and I guess the poor old thing is sad because business is dull," was the ready reply.

W. E. Hutcheson rode to the city from Pittsburgh on his wheel Saturday evening, and spent Sunday with his wife and children who are visiting relatives here. He says the roads are in good condition. Mr. Hutcheson returned this morning.

Expressman Joe Smith, who was defeated by Erastus Phillips in a sprinting contest that took place in the lower part of the city several days ago, is not satisfied with the result, and declares he will run his opponent over again, and will wager a good sum that he will defeat him.

The telephone company will place no poles in the alley between Fourth and Fifth streets because it would not be a paying investment. The officials have not given up all hope of being allowed to plant poles on Fifth street, and still think council will help them out of the middle.

A prominent manufacturer, who favors the founding of an experimental laboratory to test the quality of clays, thinks a paper should be circulated among the potters concerns of the city. He thinks the move a good one, and threatens to found a laboratory of his own if the co-operative movement is a failure.

The brand new packet Kanawha made its initial trip to Pittsburgh today, passing this place at 5 o'clock this morning. The new boat is not as large as the Virginia, but is fitted up in an elaborate manner, and is a model of beauty. The Kanawha will play between Pittsburgh and Charleston, and will make one trip a week. She carried a large cargo of freight this morning.

The Final Days

of our semi-annual clearance sale are close at hand, and better bargains than at any time during this sale are at your disposal.

All Summer Shoes must go. Look at these prices, and then the shoes, and we're sure of a sale:

Misses Tan Shoes, button or lace, dark or light color, have been $2.00, $1.75, $1.50, $1.25.

Now 98 cts.

Boys' Tan Shoes, heel and spring heel.

Now 98 cts.

Women's Tan Shoes, button and lace, needle toes.

98 cts. and $1.48.

Women's Oxford Ties, black and brown, button, lace and congress, have been $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00.

98 cts. and $1.48.

Women's Shoes, something entirely new, extreme stiletto toe, patent heel foxing, button and lace, were $3.00.

Now $2.18.

Men's Patent Leather Shoes, 50 pairs, odds and ends, were $5.00.

Now $2.50.

Bendheim's.

The Game of Subtraction.

He was a homeless youth in the bi metropolis, but he had found a boarding house that was a dream of comfort. "That room is just fit," he said to himself as he left after his first visit. And he went over his charms mentally, "Bi bureau, wardrobe, three easy chair-footstool, stunning big ribbon bow on one chair, door open into bathroom." That big, homelike ribbon bow and bath were too good to last. The game of subtraction had begun before he made a second visit.

The ribbon bow went first. The big easy chair disappeared next. He didn't mind when the family portrait vanished from the mantel. He meditated upon the subject, however, as in the easy comfort of his pyjamas he strolled to the bathroom door one morning to his maternal plunge. The door was locked. Now that he is in other quarters he wonders if there would have been a bed left to sleep on if he had staid.—New York Times.

A Greased Argument.

A correspondent at South Omaha writes to the editor of The Bee to ask if the government could not be induced to buy 200,000 or 300,000 tierces of lard at 5 1/2 to 6 cents per pound. Lard, he tells us, is selling at South Omaha at $2.85 per 100 pounds, but if the government were willing to take all offered at twice the present market price no one would sell lard for less than the upset price at Washington. Of course the packers would reap the bulk of the profit, but then the farmer who raises hogs might get a dribble of it from the artificial hog market it would create. A free-lard party to work this much-desired reform is suggested as the proper caper.—Omaha Bee.

Her Style.

Mrs. White—Oh, you've got a new pair of glasses! Mrs. Greene—Yes; when I went into the store, I didn't know what to say when the young man asked me if I'd have conclave or complex, but I finally took a pair of pearls. The name sounded so genteel, you know, that I made up my mind at once to take them.—Boston Transcript.

Other Use For His Jaw.

Cannibal Chief—What have you for dinner today, love? Cannibal Chieflet—The last lot are all gone but two typewriter girls. Have you any choice? Cannibal Chief—No, my dear. That is a case in which I have no wish to dictate!—New York Press.

Exactng.

"Yes," the author went on to say, "he is a very exacting editor. It is almost impossible to write poetry he can't understand. I verily believe he must be something of a mind reader."—Detroit Tribune.

Dyspepsia Breeders.

Tell your husbands to avoid places advertising, "Business men's quick lunch." They are dyspepsia breeders.—Twentieth Century Cookery.

The Weather.

Fair, preceded by local showers on the lakes; fresh westerly winds; cooler in northern portions.

ALL THE PEOPLE

SAVE MONEY

When they Purchase Groceries of

HUNTSMAN

You will find all the necessities of life, first class goods, at reasonable prices. It will pay you to deal with Huntsman. All reasonable fruits and vegetables. Ask for Marvin's celebrated . .

Quaker Bread.

Market and Fourth Sts.

HUNTSMAN.

FEATHERBONE CORSETS AND WAISTS.

Correct Shapes

Best Materials

Reasonable Prices

Latest Styles

Artistic Effects

Most Comfortable

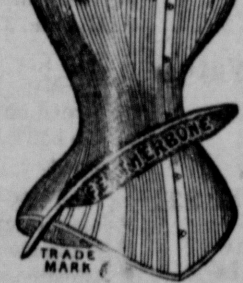

Merchants cheerfully

refund the money

after 4 weeks' trial if not satisfactory.

28 Styles.

Medium,

Long and Short Lengths.

SOLD AND RECOMMENDED BY

CROSSER & OGILVIE CO., Dry Goods and Notions,
East Liverpool, Ohio.

FOR SALE.

The Following at a Great Bargain:

AUTOMATIC SAFETY ENGINE.

3-horse power, in good shape. Additional machinery, requiring more power, reason for selling. A bargain. See it.

THE NEWS REVIEW OFFICE.

Rock Springs.

The Rock Springs Pleasure Resort is now open for the season, to public and private parties. The steamer Ollie Neville will transport visitors at all times, day or evening. For dates, etc., apply to

MCGHIE & MOORE.

Caution about the Use and Selection of Spectacles.

"Persons before normal vision will be able to read this notice at a distance of 14 inches from the eye with ease and comfort. This will be able to read it with ease and comfort. If unable to do so, your eyes are defective and should have immediate attention. When the eyes become tired from reading, or if the letters look blurred and together, it is a sure indication that glasses are needed. The lenses sold in this office, made of a superior quality of glass, have been found to be the most comfortable and give the most perfect vision. The lenses are made of a superior quality of glass, have been found to be the most comfortable and give the most perfect vision. The lenses are made of a superior quality of glass, have been found to be the most comfortable and give the most perfect vision."

DR. J. T. ROBERTS,
THE JEWELER,
Fits Eyes Correctly. Fine Watch Repairing.
1121 Block, East Liverpool, O.

G. H. REIDEL PLATING WORKS.

GOLD, SILVER, NICKEL and BRONZE ELECTRIC PLATING on all kinds of metal. Replating of Bicycles, Chandeliers, Etc.

Office and Works, 510 First Avenue,
NEW BRIGHTON, PA.

BASE BALL PARK.

Clubs or parties wishing to use West End park for base ball purposes must make arrangements in advance. Trespassers will be summarily dealt with according to law.

ROSE & DIX, Managers.

PRETTY PRINTING { NEWS REVIEW

DAVID BOYCE, President.
J. M. KELLY, Vice President.
N. G. MACKUM, Cashier.
H. H. BLYTHE, Assistant Cashier.

Board of Directors:
David Boyce W. L. Thompson.
J. M. Kelly Wm. H. Vodrey.
Robert Hall B. O. Simma,
John O. Thompson.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF EAST LIVERPOOL.

Capital.....$100,000
Surplus and Earnings. 40,000

GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS.

Invite Business and Personal Accounts

Safety Deposit Boxes for Rent.

198 WASHINGTON STREET

Save Your Money

By taking stock in The Potters' Building and Savings Company. . . Any day or evening this week.

OHIO VALLEY Business College —AND—

SCHOOL OF SHORTHAND,
EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

Department of Business, Shorthand, Penmanship and College Preparatory. Ablest faculty, finest penman. Graduates assisted to positions. Day and night session. Fall opening Sept. 7. Enter now.

J. F. COOPER, Pres.

WADE, THE JEWELER.

You can find him at corner of Sixth and West Market sts. in the new Anderson block. He deals in all classes of Jewelry, and sells at reasonable prices and on most favorable terms. It will pay you to call on him.

REPAIRING A SPECIAL FEATURE.

PIANOS

SMITH & PHILLIPS

Thousands of Pairs of Shoes = AT COST. =

Our Special Sale will close in a few days, and the people who bought know that they bought better shoes for less money than they ever did, as we must close them out. If your size is here, you can buy Tan Shoes for the price of the leather, without paying for the making.

Leading Shoe House, W. H. GASS.
220 Diamond.

MAY BE WATTEKSON.

A Strong Favorite For Gold Democratic Nomination.

CLEVELAND WOULD BE THE MAN

If He Would Only Give the Word, But Nothing Has Been Heard From the President—Tariff For Revenue Only Plank to Be Adopted.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 31.—On Wednesday the gold Democrats are to assemble here in opposition to the action of the Democracy at Chicago and launch the new party in the troubled sea of politics, but as yet Indianapolis displays but few of the outward manifestations of an approaching national convention. The hotel corridors, which usually swarm and seethe with politicians and guests on the eve of a national convention, are barren and deserted. A few of the managers are on the ground and the advance guard of the newspaper men is already here, but the delegates have not yet begun to put in an appearance. In the nature of things, however, this would be the case, as there is no division as the purpose of the convention and no scramble after the nominations.

The managers express themselves as more than satisfied with the outlook and say they expect delegations from 42 states and territories to be present. When the movement was originally started there seemed to be a division of sentiment as to whether a ticket should be placed in the field.

As the movement grew, however, and obtained what was considered, at least, as the tacit approval of the administration, the feeling that a ticket should be placed in the field for the gold Democrats to rally around grew stronger, and it is accepted as a foregone conclusion that standard-bearers will be named. The managers have practically decided upon the adoption as their emblem for the ballots the head of Jefferson and they expect to frame a platform, which besides repudiating the Chicago platform and nomination, will clearly enunciate and reiterate Democratic doctrines as set forth in former platforms. The prevailing sentiment favors a particularly long plank in favor of a tariff for revenue only. As to the candidates, it is possible that quite a contest will be developed. Quite a number of states have instructed Wisconsin for Bragg; Nebraska and Michigan for Vilas, Missouri for Broadhead, and others for favorite sons, but the gossip here so far seems largely confined to Senator Vilas and Henry Watterson.

The latter from his far off sojourn in Switzerland has cabled his willingness to accept and make the fight if named. He was one of the first of the Democrats of national prominence who advised the rejection of the Chicago platform, which besides repudiating the Chicago platform and nomination, will clearly enunciate and reiterate Democratic doctrines as set forth in former platforms. The prevailing sentiment favors a particularly long plank in favor of a tariff for revenue only. As to the candidates, it is possible that quite a contest will be developed. Quite a number of states have instructed Wisconsin for Bragg; Nebraska and Michigan for Vilas, Missouri for Broadhead, and others for favorite sons, but the gossip here so far seems largely confined to Senator Vilas and Henry Watterson.

The latter from his far off sojourn in Switzerland has cabled his willingness to accept and make the fight if named. He was one of the first of the Democrats of national prominence who advised the rejection of the Chicago platform, which besides repudiating the Chicago platform and nomination, will clearly enunciate and reiterate Democratic doctrines as set forth in former platforms. The prevailing sentiment favors a particularly long plank in favor of a tariff for revenue only. As to the candidates, it is possible that quite a contest will be developed. Quite a number of states have instructed Wisconsin for Bragg; Nebraska and Michigan for Vilas, Missouri for Broadhead, and others for favorite sons, but the gossip here so far seems largely confined to Senator Vilas and Henry Watterson.

It is conceded on all hands that if Mr. Cleveland would accept the nomination it would be tendered him unanimously. Mr. Bryan said that he would unquestionably be the strongest man, but that Mr. Cleveland had given no word. Although he is generally understood that the president and his purposes nothing has yet been received from him. The arrival of Secretary Morton, who will probably be the only member of his official family here and of Comptroller Eckels, is therefore looked forward to anxiously. It is not regarded as improbable that some sort of utterance will come from the president before the convention meets or while it is in session.

Should Vilas be chosen, anyone except Watterson is nominated for president, it is thought that Simon Bolivar Buckner of Kentucky will be nominated for vice president.

Ex-Governor Flower of New York has telegraphed his acceptance of the post of temporary chairman and it is practically decided that Senator Caffery of Louisiana will be permanent chairman of the convention.

In order to give the public an opportunity to listen to the oratory a mass-meeting will be held on Wednesday night, which will be addressed by Colonel John R. Fellows and other prominent orators.

AT CLEVELAND TONIGHT.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Left Lake Chautauqua Today.

LAKESIDE, N. Y., Aug. 31.—Mr. and Mrs. Bryan, after being guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Mack of Buffalo at their summer cottage over night, made a brief visit to the assembly grounds, on Chautauqua lake. After a speech at Ripley, they left for Cleveland, where Mr. Bryan speaks tonight. Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs. Bryan attended the First Presbyterian church at Jamestown.

Mr. Bryan spoke Saturday night in the convention hall at Celeron, on Lake Chautauqua. The determination of twice as many people as the hall could hold to hear the presidential candidate resulted in a crush which would have ended in great loss of life if the panic which for half an hour seemed imminent had not been prevented. The hall contains seats for 8,000 people, but fully 12,000 were packed into its frail walls, fighting for more standing room an hour before the speaking.

The starting of an overflow meeting by Congressman Sibley on the outside probably prevented a panic.

A GOLD CONVENTION.

New Democratic Party Formed in West Virginia.

WHEELING, Aug. 31.—At the state convention of the West Virginia gold standard Democrats held in this city 300 delegates from 35 counties of the state were enrolled. The platform introduced by the resolutions committee, which declares for the gold standard, was adopted. The great majority, which opposed the '92 platform, which had many advocates, based its opposition on the fact that it is subject to two different interpretations. The platform also praises President Cleveland's administration as wise and patriotic.

A prominent figure in the convention was W. H. Wilson, Postmaster General Wilson's son. Delegates were chosen to represent the state in the Indianapolis convention of the national Democratic party and presidential electors named.

The question of an endorsement of the free silver Democratic state ticket was to the new committee. Some of the leaders will oppose an endorsement.

DRUMMERS AND GERMANS.

Two Big Delegations Visited McKinley Saturday.

CANTON, O., Aug. 31.—Saturday was drummers' day at Major McKinley's home, and the Chicago commercial travelers to the number of 500 were received by him. G. J. Carey, chairman of the national railroad committee of the commercial men's organization of the United States, was the spokesman and made a brief but effective address, to which Major McKinley replied.

The second delegation was composed of 1,000 German-Americans of Cleveland, bringing with them the First Artillery band of Ohio. Colonel John Smith and Captain Edward Bohm made speeches and Major McKinley replied.

Employees of the Duober-Hampden works were also visitors.

WREATH ON GRANT'S TOMB.

Li Hung Chang Placed One—Tues.—Visited Colonel Grant.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Li Hung Chang spent Sunday quietly at the Waldorf. In the morning he received his old friend, Colonel Forrester, and afterward a delegation of Mott street merchants paid their respects to the viceroy.

In the afternoon Li Hung Chang visited Grant's tomb, on which he laid a wreath of flowers, winding up the day by a visit to the house of Colonel Forrester, where he had tea and remained for an hour.

Smirching the Supreme Court.

"The supreme court" of the United States is a pure and able tribunal, the highest judicial tribunal in the world; I will not help smirch it."

Thus spoke Senator Edward O. Wolcott of Colorado, an able and eloquent Republican advocate of the free coinage of silver, in refusing to follow the free silver sentiment in his state in supporting Bryan and Sewall.

The Chicago platform manifests a clear purpose to procure a reversal of the income tax decision by appointing new judges who will vote for such reversal.

Under the Bryan regime the federal judges are to be selected, not with sole reference to character and fitness and legal ability, but with reference to their opinion as ascertained in advance, concerning the most important questions of law.

Mr. Bryan is the declared enemy of the federal judiciary. "Plutocracy," he says, "is entrenched behind our judicial system." We believe the truth to be very different. We are convinced that if there is any distinction in the general administration of justice in this country it is in favor of the poor rather than the rich. But, however it may be in regard to other tribunals, the supreme court of the United States is free from reproach in the estimation of all mankind save the followers of Bryan. It was reserved for them to try to tarnish its fair fame.

We are confident that the conservative and thoughtful voters throughout the Union will refuse to help in the operation.—N. Y. Sun.

Democratic Bolting Papers.

The list of Democratic and Independent newspapers that have bolted the Chicago platform for sound money, and in most cases are outspoken for McKinley and Hobart, now numbers 160. Not even the war of the rebellion created so remarkable a turnover.

THE NEWS REVIEW FOR NEWS.

Some Fearful Moments.

During the late war between China and Japan we heard often of wonderful acts of bravery performed by the Japanese, but tales of Chinese bravery were few and far between. The following story, however, which appears to be told by an eyewitness, is enough to show that the Chinese had at least one officer who was no coward.

The deposed viceroy, Li Hung Chang, and the committee appointed by the government to investigate the reasons of defeat at the battle of Port Arthur met in the city of Peking. Among the charges was one of poor gunnery brought against Captain Li Chen Fue, who had commanded the Yen Tse Chang, one of the largest battleships that escaped from the action without great damage.

After Li Hung Chang had read the charges in full the accused captain rose and requested that a dozen shells be brought from his vessel. This was done, and the shells were set in a row before the committee.

Le Chen Fue then stepped forward, and drawing his sword said, "Can you wonder that we were defeated when our shells were like these?"

As he spoke and before any one could stop him he raised his sword and brought it down on the shell in front of him. The shell was split in two, and sawdust and red brick dust flew all about.

Then in rapid succession he struck shell after shell. Nobody moved, we were so surprised and frightened. I remember thinking that if the last one proved a good one there would be none of us left to tell the tale; but, no, that was like all the others—a sham.

As he finished Li Chen Fue laid his sword at the feet of Li Hung Chang, and as soon as that statesman could speak he dismissed the charges.

Valuable Dog.

Some tribes of American Indians are said to be highly expert at feats of jugglery. Other tribes seem to be almost unacquainted with such tricks, if we are to credit a story said to have been told by a military officer at Fort Sill and reported by the Buffalo Express.

Professor McAllister, the magician, once visited a camp of River Crows on the Yellowstone, and after extracting various packs of cards and other articles from the ears, necks, noses and garments of the astonished Indians was invited to a big feast of roast dog and other delicacies.

Chief Two Belly was so impressed by the great medicine powers of the professor that he took him to his wigwam, introduced him to his daughter, Miss Wicista-Neeta (meaning wildcat) and offered her to him for a wife at the low price of two ponies.

The feast and daughter were both declined, but as McAllister was leaving the tepee he spied a lean, yellow cur. He asked Chief Two Belly how much he would take for the dog, at the same time stroking the brute down the back and each time taking a handful of money from the end of his tail.

"Him very valuable dog," said McAllister, picking a coin out of the dog's eye and another out of his nose. "Two ponies for him, chief."

The Indians, with eyes as big as saucers, stood in awe and astonishment and shook their heads. After McAllister had gone they carried the poor dog down to the river and cut him open, but the goose had no golden egg, and they went slowly back to camp as completely dumfounded and as solemn as human beings can possibly be.

Compromising With Conscience.

He was a mean creature, and to his meanness was added such designing wickedness as is rarely shown by man. He went into a newspaper office the other morning and offered the following advertisement for publication:

"Notice.—If the plain looking woman, about 40 years of age, who lost a pocketbook containing $2 12s. 6d. in S— street on Tuesday afternoon will apply to —, she can have the money by paying for this advertisement."

The mean wretch had seen the lady drop the pocketbook and wished to retain the contents for himself. He was of opinion that no woman would answer the advertisement as he had worded it, for so small a sum as £2 12s. 6d. He was correct.—Pearson's Weekly.

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—Joe Patchen, the champion pacing stallion, has been matched against W. W. Hamilton, the bicyclist, who holds most of the unbroken records, for a race at Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 19, mile heats, best two in three, for a purse of $2,000.

A Brilliant Military Review.

VIENNA, Aug. 31.—A brilliant military review in honor of the czar and carina has been given. Emperor Francis Joseph led his own dragon regiment before the czar, and the latter then led the infantry regiment before the emperor.

Satoli's Successor Arrives Sept. 20.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Cardinal Satoli has received word from Rome that his successor, Father Sebastian Martinelli, now prior general of the Augustinians, will arrive in Washington on or about Sept. 20.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Elden—a daughter.

The Columbian club will entertain friends this evening.

The Federal Labor union will meet this evening to transact important business.

A set of tools to be used in drilling for oil near Hookstown arrived here this morning.

C. H. Fleming left this morning on an eastern trip in the interest of the Bedford pottery.

While switching in the Wellsville yards last evening a caboose was badly wrecked by a collision.

Dick Sutton has gone to Woodfield, where he will take a place behind the counter of a leading hotel.

Councilman Ashbaugh left for the east this morning on a trip in the interest of the West End pottery.

D. J. Smith will talk to the people of Hookstown next Thursday evening about the fallacy of free silver.

The shoemakers will meet this evening, and arrange for the part they will take in the Labor day exercises.

A prominent resident of Wellsville stated last night that Democrats were very scarce in that place just now.

Mr. Irvin Dunlap and Miss Bernice Dunlap will go to Cleveland next Thursday where they will enter a college.

Miss Janet Robbins will entertain in honor of her ninth anniversary at her home on Sheridan avenue, this evening.

The business portion of the city was crowded with people on Saturday night, but merchants were not satisfied with the trade.

Capt. Will Hill captured a blacksnake four feet in length at Beaver creek yesterday, and has placed it on exhibition in a glass jar.

The family of N. T. Ashbaugh moved today from Spring Grove to the city. There are now but four Liverpool families at the grounds.

The reunion of the Rechabites held this evening promises to be well attended, and undoubtedly will prove an event long to be remembered.

The family of William Hargreaves, of the East End, who have been spending the summer on Beaver creek, returned home Saturday afternoon.

George Dunlap, Will Congleton and Bert Asken, three young men of Cleveland, came to the city on their wheels Saturday, and are the guests of Irvin Dunlap.

A stranger signed himself on the register of a leading hotel this morning as coming from Cuba, and before the joke was discovered all the reporters in town were hunting him.

The East Liverpool club have cancelled their engagement with Greensburg, and that town will not see one of the best amateur teams in Ohio play ball. Some leading players could not leave their work.

A party of ten people left this morning for a two weeks' camp at Echo Dell. Several hundred blue rocks and live pigeons were taken with them, and a number of shoots will be held while they are in camp.

Mrs. Ann Bourne, an aged lady residing on Greasy street, was stricken with paralysis Saturday evening. The lady had several attacks of this kind recently, and this last one may prove of a serious nature.

"What makes the river so blue?" asked one resident of another, as they looked upon the unnatural color of the water. "The packets are not running, and I guess the poor old thing is sad because business is dull," was the ready reply.

W. E. Hutcheson rode to the city from Pittsburg on his wheel Saturday evening, and spent Sunday with his wife and children who are visiting relatives here. He says the roads are in good condition. Mr. Hutcheson returned this morning.

Expressman Joe Smith, who was defeated by Erastus Phillips in a sprinting contest that took place in the lower part of the city several days ago, is not satisfied with the result, and declares he will run his opponent over again, and will wager a good sum that he will defeat him.

The telephone company will place no poles in the alley between Fourth and Fifth streets because it would not be a paying investment. The officials have not given up all hope of being allowed to plant poles on Fifth street, and still think council will help them out of the middle.

A prominent manufacturer, who favors the founding of an experimental laboratory to test the quality of clays, thinks a paper should be circulated among the potting concerns of the city. He thinks the move a good one, and threatens to found a laboratory of his own if the co-operative movement is a failure.

The brand new packet Kanawha made its initial trip to Pittsburg today, passing this place at 5 o'clock this morning. The new boat is not as large as the Virginia, but is fitted up in an elaborate manner, and is a model of beauty. The Kanawha will play between Pittsburg and Charleston, and will make one trip a week. She carried a large cargo of freight this morning.

The Final Days

of our semi-annual clearance sale are close at hand, and better bargains than at any time during this sale are at your disposal.

All Summer Shoes must go. Look at these prices, and then the shoes, and we're sure of a sale:

Misses Tan Shoes, button or lace, dark or light color, have been $2.00, $1.75, $1.50, $1.25.

Now 98 cts.

Boys' Tan Shoes, heel and spring heel.

Now 98 cts.

Women's Tan Shoes, button and lace, needle toes.

98 cts. and $1.48.

Women's Oxford Ties, black and brown, button, lace and congress, have been $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00.

98 cts. and $1.48.

Women's Shoes, something entirely new, extreme stiletto toe, patent heel foxing, button and lace, were $3.00.

Now $2.18.

Men's Patent Leather Shoes, 50 pairs, odds and ends, were $5.00.

Now $2.50.

Bendheim's.

The Game of Subtraction.

He was a homeless youth in the big metropolis, but he had found a boarding house that was a dream of comfort. "That room is just fit," he said to himself as he left after his first visit. "He went over his charms mentally. 'Bi-bureau, wardrobe, three easy chair, footstool, stunning big ribbon bow on one chair, door open into bathroom.' That big, homelike ribbon bow and the bath were too good to last. The game of subtraction had begun before he had a second visit.

The ribbon bow went first. The big guest easy chair disappeared next. He didn't mind when the family portrait vanished from the mantel. He meditated upon the subject, however, as in the easy comfort of his pyjamas he strolled to the bathroom door one morning to his matutinal plunge. The door was locked. Now that he is in other quarters he wonders if there would have been a bed left to sleep on if he had staid.—New York Times.

A Greased Argument.

A correspondent at South Omaha writes to the editor of The Bee to ask if the government could not be induced to buy 200,000 or 300,000 tierces of lard at 5 1/2 to 6 cents per pound. Lard, he tells us, is selling at South Omaha at $2.85 per 100 pounds, but if the government were willing to take all offered at twice the present market price no one would sell lard for less than the upset price at Washington. Of course the packers would reap the bulk of the profit, but then the farmer who raises hogs might get a dribble of it from the artificial hog market it would create. A free-lard party to work this much-debated reform is suggested as the proper caper.—Omaha Bee.

Her Style.

Mrs. White—Oh, you've got a new pair of glasses! Mrs. Greene—Yes; when I went into the store, I didn't know what to say when the young man asked me if I'd have conclave or complex, but I finely took a pair of peristaltic. The name sounded so genteel, you know, that I made up my mind at once to take them.—Boston Transcript.

Other Use For His Jaw.

Cannibal Chief—What have you for dinner today, love? Cannibal Chief's pet—The last lot are all gone but two typewriter girls. Have you any choice? Cannibal Chief—No, my dear. That is a case in which I have no wish to dictate!—New York Press.

Exacting.

"Yes," the author went on to say, "he is a very exacting editor. It is almost impossible to write poetry he can't understand. I verily believe he must be something of a mind reader."—Detroit Tribune.

Dyspepsia Breeders.

Tell your husbands to avoid places advertising, "Business men's quick lunch." They are dyspepsia breeders.—Twentieth Century Cookery.

The Weather.

Fair, preceded by local showers on the lakes; fresh westerly winds; cooler in northern portions.

ALL THE PEOPLE —SAVE MONEY—

When they Purchase Groceries of

HUNTSMAN

You will find all the necessities of life, first class goods, at reasonable prices. It will pay you to deal with Huntsman. All seasonable fruits and vegetables. Ask for Marvin's celebrated . .

Quaker Bread.

Market and Fourth Sts.

HUNTSMAN.

Save Your Money

By taking stock in The Potters' Building and Savings Company. . . Any day or evening this week.

FEATHERBONE CORSETS AND WAISTS.

Correct Shapes

Best Materials

Reasonable Prices

Merchants cheerfully

refund the money

after 4 weeks' trial if

not satisfactory.

SOLD AND RECOMMENDED BY

CROSSER & OGILVIE CO., Dry Goods and Notions,

East Liverpool, Ohio.

OHIO VALLEY

Business College

SCHOOL OF SHORTHAND,

EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

Department of Business, Shorthand, Penmanship and College Preparatory. Ablest faculty, finest penman. Graduates assisted to positions. Day and night session. Fall opening Sept. 7. Enter now.

J. F. COOPER, Pres.

• THE •

WADE, JEWELER.

You can find him at corner of Sixth and West Market sts. in the new Anderson block. He deals in all classes of Jewelry, and sells at reasonable prices and on most favorable terms. It will pay you to call on him.

REPAIRING A SPECIAL FEATURE.

PIANOS

SMITH & PHILLIPS

EAST LIVERPOOL — OHIO

WITH W. L. THOMPSON & CO.

WANTED.

WANTED—ROOMERS FOR PLEASANT rooms on Fifth street, near Diamond. Inquire at 127 Sixth street, or 135 Fifth street.

WANTED — INFORMATION WHICH will lead to the locating of a Le Claire house, stolen some time since, from the photo gallery in the First National Bank. A suitable reward will be paid to any one giving desired information. Report to this office.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE—A HANDSOME residence property, nicely located on Avondale street. House of five rooms and bath room. All in first-class condition. To a party meaning business, here is a bargain. For full particulars call on L. T. MORAN, office J. T. Smith Lumber company.

You Can Depend on It

That Foley's Colic and Diarrhoea cure is an instant relief for colic, summer complaint, cholera morbus, diarrhoea, bloody flux, chronic diarrhoea, cholera infantum bilious colic, painters' colic and all bowel complaints. Twenty-five and 50 cents.

For sale at Bulger's and Reed's drug stores.

DAVID BOYCE, President.
J. M. KELLY, Vice President.
N. G. MACRUM, Cashier.
H. H. BLYTHE, Assistant Cashier.

Board of Directors:
David Boyce W. L. Thompson.
J. M. Kelly Wm. H. Vodrey.
Robert Hall H. O. Simms.
John O. Thompson.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF EAST LIVERPOOL.

Capital.....$100,000
Surplus and Earnings. 40,000

GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS.

Invite Business and Personal Accounts

Safety Deposit Boxes for Rent.

198 WASHINGTON STREET

Save Your Money

By taking stock in The Potters' Building and Savings Company. . . Any day or evening this week.

LISTEN!

You never got a telephone message of more importance than this: That Geo. C. Murphy, the Reliable Clothier, Hatter and Gents' Furnisher, has just received his new fall stock of Hats, such as the celebrated

Imperial, Duquesne, Flexor, Knox, Miller and Dunlop Block.

We are sole agents for the Imperial Hat, and we claim it is the best hat in America. It is warranted to neither fade nor break. Come in and see it. Our advance styles of Neckwear are now in and we want your opinion. We think it hard to beat.

For good, reliable, stylish garments go to

GEO. C. MURPHY,
Bargain One Price
Clothier, Hatter, Furnisher.

LOVERS

of good Soda Water, Take Notice!

ALVIN H. BULGER,

THE DRUGGIST,
has just begun the manufacture of his Famous

SODA WATER,
Cold and Delicious,
Clean and Pure.

Stop in and quench your thirst with a glass of it, and see if it is not superior to any you have tried.

AT BULGER'S

These shoes fit to perfection and wear as only the best of leather can. They're shapely, pliant—the most comfortable of footwear. They always manage to let in air and keep out water.

For sale by J. B. WARNER & CO., East Liverpool, Ohio.

Who Fills Your Prescriptions?

That question you should think about. They are safe in our hands.

Why? Because this is the only store on Sixth street that employs a registered and graduated drug clerk, as required by law.

You Run No Risk at Will Reed's.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—John Moore is a Pittsburgh visitor today.

—Mrs. Percy Frost is spending a week with relatives in Pittsburgh.

—Miss Grace Hart returned home from Pittsburgh this morning.

—Miss Lillian Brookes went to Akron this morning to visit relatives.

—Miss Mary Scott, of Mt. Union, is the guest of Miss Blanche Carey.

—P. G. Peterson and family left this morning to visit friends in Harrison county.

—Charles Fisher arrived this morning, after a vacation of two weeks at the sea shore.

—Mrs. Henry Koch and Miss May Tattenhorst are the guests of friends in Steubenville.

—Miss Etta Horwell is home after a visit of a few days with friends in Oakmont, Pa.

—G. W. Henry, of Alliance, returned home Saturday after a brief visit with Doctor Williams.

—Mrs. Clark Birch arrived home this morning, after a visit of six weeks in Jefferson county.

—H. Kountz returned to Pittsburgh this morning after visiting E. O. Connors, Fifth street.

—Miss Mary Buchanan has returned home, after a vacation with friends in Washington county.

—Miss Bertha Sample went to Pittsburgh this morning, and will spend a week with friends there.

—Motorman Stodghill and family returned home today after a visit of a week with friends in Cleveland.

—Joseph G. Lee and wife arrived home Saturday evening after a visit of two weeks at Berkeley Springs, Pa.

—Will Lear and wife returned to their home in Wheeling this morning, after an extended visit with friends here.

—George Jones and daughter Miss Alice, of Bellaire, are visiting at the home of Lon Thomas, Greasy street.

—The Misses Watson returned home Saturday evening, after a visit at the home of Judge Collins, of Columbus.

—Miss Mattie Jolly returned home Saturday evening, after a visit of three weeks with relatives in East Palestine.

—Mrs. T. B. Grimes and son, of Wellsburg, are visiting an uncle of Mrs. Grimes, J. C. Nichols, Thompson avenue.

—Mrs. R. M. Smith, of Baden, returned home today after a brief visit at the home of Reverend Reinartz, Third street.

—Miss Lucy Milbrin, of Allegheny, niece of ex-Mayor Wyman, of that city, is the guest of Miss Minnie Wilson, of Broadway.

—Misses Annie and Alice Hurst, of Wooster, who have been the guests of Miss Annie Pope, of Thompson place, returned to their home today.

—Charley Hall and Joe Cartwright rode to Steubenville on their wheels, Saturday afternoon, and saw the end of one of the best tennis tournaments ever held in this part of the state.

G. A. R. AT ST. PAUL.

Special Rates via Pennsylvania Lines for National Encampment.

August 30 and 31 and September 1 are the dates upon which low rate round trip tickets to St. Paul will be sold via Pennsylvania lines, the short route through Chicago. Tickets will be good returning until September 15, inclusive, and if deposited with the joint agent at St. Paul on or before September 15, the return limit will be extended to include September 30. The rates for this occasion will be exceptionally low via Pennsylvania lines, the only system of railroads over which trains run from Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana to Chicago union station, the natural gateway from those states to the northwest. Daily trains from Pittsburgh, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Louisville make convenient connection at Chicago with St. Paul trains. Arrangements may be made by Grand Army posts or parties of friends to travel together on special trains or special car that will go through from starting point to the encampment without change, if the number justifies it. Information on the subject will be cheerfully furnished by representatives of the Pennsylvania lines. The person to address at East Liverpool is Ticket Agent Adam Hill.

Beaver Falls Excursion.

On Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 9 and 10, the Pennsylvania company will sell excursion tickets to Beaver Falls account the street fair and industrial parade at single fare for round trip from Pittsburgh, Transfer, Beloit, Warren, East Liverpool and intermediate ticket stations on the Pennsylvania lines. Tickets will not be sold at less rate than 25 cents and will be good returning until Sept. 11. For rates, time of trains and details apply to Pennsylvania line ticket agents.

Excursions to Steubenville.

September 2, 3, and 4, low round trip tickets will be sold to Steubenville from Carnegie, New Cumberland, Short Creek, Portland, East Liverpool, Cadiz, and intermediate ticket stations on Pennsylvania lines for the races; return coupons valid Sept. 5, inclusive.

A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Largest United States Government Food Report.

It Costs to Stop Cars.

The cost of stopping a train of cars has always been a subject of discussion, and it is sometimes worth the inquiry of railroad men. Estimates of the cost have ranged from one-quarter of a cent up to $2 for stopping an ordinary passenger train. The small figure represented only the estimated loss of metal by applying the brake to the wheel. Some of the real considerations that go to make up the cost of a stop are the coal burned while the train is standing still, and in order to resume the former speed—this the Pennsylvania railroad people put at 12 to 15 cents. Then there are the wages of all persons on the train, who, while the train slows down and stops, are paid as if the train were running. This is insignificant in the case of one person, but it amounts to something when the whole force is considered; besides this, there is the wear of the rails. A rail lasts only a third as long where trains come to a stop on it as when merely run over. This is the result of the action of the brakes. Then, too, more accidents occur to engines, to wheels and to axles in coming to a stop or in starting again than with running right along.

The Railroad Gazette reported a discussion some years ago on this subject, in which the conclusion is reached that the actual cost of stopping an ordinary train is about 80 to 90 cents. An amusing story is told of a trial where experts testify that it cost $2 to stop a train. They established the fact. Then the counsel on the other side produced the company's time table, with a full list of all the stops, including stations, took the total number of its trains, calculated the total stoppages of all the trains for one year, multiplying the result by $2—the experts' estimate of cost—and demonstrated that the stoppages alone had, if the estimate was right, cost the company three times as much as the entire amount of its operating expenses for the year. This reduction to a solid basis of fact upset the $2 theory.—Philadelphia Item.

FOR ANOTHER WEEK.

Porter Kayes Did Not Have a Hearing Today.

Porter Kayes, who was accused of a serious crime more than a week ago by George Ward, did not have a hearing this morning. Both sides of the controversy decided it would be best to postpone the trial, and it went over for another week. It will be remembered that the original date for the hearing was last Monday, but it was deferred until today. There is a growing sentiment that the case will never come up for trial.

ASSESSMENT NOTICE.

East Liverpool, Aug. 1, 1896.

The assessments for street improvements and sewers for the year 1896 are due and payable at the office of the City Clerk, on or before the first day of Sept., 1896. All assessments unpaid at that date will be certified to the County Auditor and collected with 10 per cent. penalty.

By order of the City Council.
JAMES N. HANLEY,
City Clerk.

Caused a Sensation.

A report involving the honor of a well known resident was widely circulated today. The rumor said he had eloped with a woman living in the lower part of the city, but relatives of the interested parties could not be found. Neighbors expressed the belief the story was true.

I will reopen the meat market formerly operated by me on Thursday, Sept. 3, 1896, and will have for sale the best grades of meat the market affords; also dressed poultry and everything good to eat in the line of meats.

J. A. JOSEPH,
No. 102 Fifth street.

Not This Time.

Postman Bevington's notorious horse was tied in Fourth street this morning, when a piece of paper was blown in its face. The animal immediately broke away, and was gathering its forces for a wild dash through the city when it was caught by a bystander.

Elected Delegates.

The Typographical union met yesterday afternoon and elected Criss McConnell, F. Leslie Trump and James F. Murphy delegates to Trades council. James F. Murphy was elected to fill a vacancy in the trustees.

New Pictures.

The McKinley club are in receipt of two handsome pictures of the next president. They were sent by the private secretary of the major, and will adorn the walls of the club room.

HIS RECOMPENSE.

"Finished at last!" Martin Bruce spoke the words with a sigh of utter weariness and lifted his head from his work, taking the magnifying glass from one eye as he did so.

Upon the table before him was a large steel plate, on which he had engraved a design requiring the most delicate and careful work, and to which he had given several days of continuous labor.

"That poor child," he muttered, and listened to a sound of suppressed sobbing coming from above his half opened door.

With the cloud still upon his face he went to the landing and looked up the narrow staircase leading to the attic.

As he expected, he saw the little figure crouched upon the upper stair, the head low over folded arms, with bare feet.

The sobbing, though distinctly audible, was evidently carefully choked down.

"Trixy!" Martin said in a low tone.

In a moment the child was beside him, with a quick, darting motion that suited well the slender figure, thin to painful angularity, the face that was almost impenetrable in its look of want and precocity.

Martin Bruce, tall and strong, with a handsome blond face, bent low and met the gaze of large, intensely black eyes swollen and inflamed by tears.

Silently he lifted the child, and taking her into his own room closed the door.

"What's the trouble now?" he asked.

"I dropped the pitcher full of milk."

"When?"

"I couldn't help it," sobbed the child.

"It was so heavy that my fingers got all stiff with ache, and before I knew it my wrists just gave a twist and down it all went."

"Whipped?"

"Oh, didn't she! See!"

And a ragged sack was slipped down to show the sickening welts upon the thin shoulders. Martin Bruce gave a shudder as he looked, and going to a washstand brought some arnica, which he mixed in cool water, and tenderly bathed the wounds with an old handkerchief.

Trixy nestled close to the hand extended to caress her gently as these words were spoken, the only hand in the big boarding house that was ever filled with kindness for her.

"Fourteen," he said again. "Trixy, it is time you were at school, if you are ever to go!"

"Away from you?"

"I am going to Paris."

Utter, blank misery fell over the child's face.

"To Paris?" she whispered, with white, shaking lips.

"Yes, Trixy, for three years. You will be quite a woman when I come back."

Six years later, in a hotel in Nice, a beautiful girl dressed in deep mourning and an elderly woman, who seemed a sort of confidential servant, were seated upon the wide piazza.

Suddenly the girl, who had been carelessly scanning the many unfamiliar faces, grasped her companion's arm, saying:

"Do you know who that is?" pointing as she spoke to a tall man with a shade over his eyes, who was seated upon a bench in the square.

"Yes, ma'amsele," said the servant in French, "that is the blind gentleman who is here under the care of Dr. Banniere. But is it not dreadful! So handsome! So strong and hopelessly blind!"

"Hopelessly blind!"

"So they say! He was injured by the work he did—fine work that tired his eyes—I do not know what it was. And he came here to Dr. Banniere, hoping to be cured. But it is useless. He can never see again!"

The young lady addressed rose as her servant spoke, and crossing the piazza stepped lightly down the steps and straight to the bench upon which the blind man was seated.

Without preface, without introduction, she said:

"I think, sir, I recognize you as a gentleman who placed a child in a school some years ago—a school where I was teacher for a short time."

The sightless eyes were turned quickly toward the speaker.

"I was deeply interested in such a child. Can you give me any tidings of her?"

"She left the school to travel with Mrs. Elwyn, an elderly lady in feeble health. Before she had been six months with Mrs. Elwyn that lady was convinced that she had found the child of a very dear sister who had eloped from home years before and whose life and death had been shrouded in mystery. Further inquiry only confirmed the facts, as the child remembered them, and when Mrs. Elwyn died here in Nice six months ago she left her entire property to Beatrice Moore, her niece."

"Then Trixy is an heiress?"

"Yes. It was one of the marvelous dispensations of Providence we dare call accident that took Mrs. Elwyn to the school. There Trixy's strong resemblance to her sister attracted her notice, and she inquired about her. Finding she was anxious to obtain employment, she engaged her as companion for a continental trip."

"I am very glad! Do you know where she is?"

A little hand fell lightly upon one lying on the knee of Martin Bruce, and his was lifted to touch a soft, round cheek. A voice, low and tender, said very softly:

"Have you forgotten me?"

"Trixy," he exclaimed, "I have never forgotten you! But you are no longer the little child I left years ago."

"No," was the half mournful answer. "I am a woman now. But you will not send me from you. You will let me remain beside you and be your eyes and hands."

"Ah, Trixy, no! Your youth and beauty—for I know you are beautiful—must never be taxed by such a heavy charge. Do you know I can never see you again!"

The prospect of separation pained her as no other prospect could have done, and she sought the bench where she had met Martin Bruce daily with a resolution that made her cheek burn.

"Martin," she said gently, "but few women dare to take their life's happiness into their own hands."

"Trixy," her lover said, "you deceive yourself. You think gratitude forces you to."

A soft hand closed his lips.

"Do you love me, Martin?"

"With my whole heart!"

"As I love you!"

"Trixy, I dare not take you at your word!"

"But you will! I have loved you for six years, Martin. I will not lose you again."

—Cincinnati Post.

Bryan and His Running Mate.

Mr. Bryan can now arrange it so that, while Mr. Sewall is carrying the cross of gold, Tom Watson may trot along behind with the crown of thorns.

Officers in the British army and navy, who are all of the rank of gentlemen, take precedence according to rank in their profession.

Reasons For Confidence.

Let the business men who are scared into selling out their securities at panic prices and the merchant who trembles at the thought of buying goods take heart of grace. Let them remember that nearly a third of the delegates to the Chicago convention refused to bow the knee to the Populist Basil, and that as large a percentage of the old party has no notion of wandering off after these false gods. Twenty per cent, 10 per cent of this element in the Democracy would save the country from the results of Populism as effectually as the 10 righteous men would have protected Sodom and Gomorrah. There can be no reasonable doubt that this proportion and more will vote for a sound money ticket or will not vote at all, to say nothing of that vast body of independent voters who are increasing in number every year and whom no party ties can hold against their convictions. The Democrats have met, have organized, and they have a wide-reaching influence. There is no doubt as to how they stand. Long before the first frost comes sensible people will laugh at the idea of there being a time when they could believe this country would have a Populist president.—Louisville Courier-Journal (Dem.).

The Demand For Mother of Pearl.

Considering the vast values in gem pearls obtained from the eastern fisheries, it is surprising to find that the plain, unadorned mother of pearl secured is of even greater worth. Previous to the discovery of the extensive Australian fishing grounds, in 1865, the supply of mother of pearl was diminishing while the demand was increasing. The large shelled species already mentioned are there found in fine quality. The shells are the size of large soup plates, weigh a pound each and are worth about a dollar a pair. An expert diver, in diving dress, will collect 300 or 400 pairs in a day. About 100 gem pearls are found in every ton of these shells.—Popular Science Monthly.

In Bonny Scotland.

Pressing business engagements make it highly important that our tourists should catch the 6 o'clock train for the south on Monday morning. Boots was interviewed on Sunday night, a hansom administered, perhaps incautiously, and a solemn promise received of an early call. Next morning the tourist awoke of his own accord, at half past 7, and aroused the boots, who listened to the torrent of anger that was poured upon him in mild surprise. "Cot bless me, sir, you was not so bad at all! The man in the next room to you was to catch the 5 o'clock boat and he's no wakened yet."—Exchange.

Tall Lying.

"I once knew a man," said the imaginative boarder, "who was so fat that he was actually taller lying down than when he was standing up. What do you think of that?"

"It strikes me," said the cheerful idiot, "as pretty tall lying."—Indianapolis Journal.

Moved to Palestine.

Alonzo Bowman is moving his family to East Palestine, where he has secured work in the pottery.

$500 Reward!

WE will pay the above reward for any case of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Indigestion, Constipation or Constiveness we cannot cure with West's Vegetable Liver Pills, when the directions are strictly complied with. They are purely vegetable, and never fail to give satisfaction. Sugar Coated. Large boxes, 25 cents. Beware of counterfeits and imitations. The genuine manufactured only by THE JOHN C. WEST CO., CHICAGO, ILL.

For sale by Will Reed, East Liverpool, O.

LADIES DO YOU KNOW

DR. F. L. LE BRUN'S Steel & Pennyroyal Pills are the original and only FRENCH, safe and reliable cure on the market. Price, $1.00; sent by mail. Genuine sold only by

Will Reed, East Liverpool, Ohio.

FERGUSON & HILL

... HAVE ...

ONE MORE BARGAIN WEEK.

It is to Your Interest to Notice Each Day's Bargains.

Star Clothes Wringers.....99c
7 cakes Our Bag Soap.....25c
12 cakes Floating Soap.....25c
Ceiling free with every room of wall paper on this day.
THURSDAY, AUG. 27.....
1 bottle Laundry Blue.....7c
No. 9 Copper Tea Kettles.....87c
Nicked.....37c
12x30 Looking Glasses.....37c
Ceiling free with every room of wall paper on this day.
FRIDAY, AUG. 28.....
2 qt. granite Tea or Coffee Pot, 33c
4 yards Linen Crash.....25c
Ladies' 35c Vests.....15c
Men's Half Hose, worth 13c.....25c
3 pairs for.....25c
Ladies' Seamless Hose, 4 pairs 25c
Special Bibles, 5x8, 8x10, 10x12, 12x16, 16x20, 20x24, 24x30, 30x36, 36x42, 42x48, 48x54, 54x60, 60x66, 66x72, 72x78, 78x84, 84x90, 90x96, 96x102, 102x108, 108x114, 114x120, 120x126, 126x132, 132x138, 138x144, 144x150, 150x156, 156x162, 162x168, 168x174, 174x180, 180x186, 186x192, 192x198, 198x204, 204x210, 210x216, 216x222, 222x228, 228x234, 234x240, 240x246, 246x252, 252x258, 258x264, 264x270, 270x276, 276x282, 282x288, 288x294, 294x300, 300x306, 306x312, 312x318, 318x324, 324x330, 330x336, 336x342, 342x348, 348x354, 354x360, 360x366, 366x372, 372x378, 378x384, 384x390, 390x396, 396x402, 402x408, 408x414, 414x420, 420x426, 426x432, 432x438, 438x444, 444x450, 450x456, 456x462, 462x468, 468x474, 474x480, 480x486, 486x492, 492x498, 498x504, 504x510, 510x516, 516x522, 522x528, 528x534, 534x540, 540x546, 546x552, 552x558, 558x564, 564x570, 570x576, 576x582, 582x588, 588x594, 594x600, 600x606, 606x612, 612x618, 618x624, 624x630, 630x636, 636x642, 642x648, 648x654, 654x660, 660x666, 666x672, 672x678, 678x684, 684x690, 690x696, 696x702, 702x708, 708x714, 714x720, 720x726, 726x732, 732x738, 738x744, 744x750, 750x756, 756x762, 762x768, 768x774, 774x780, 780x786, 786x792, 792x798, 798x804, 804x810, 810x816, 816x822, 822x828, 828x834, 834x840, 840x846, 846x852, 852x858, 858x864, 864x870, 870x876, 876x882, 882x888, 888x894, 894x900, 900x906, 906x912, 912x918, 918x924, 924x930, 930x936, 936x942, 942x948, 948x954, 954x960, 960x966, 966x972, 972x978, 978x984, 984x990, 990x996, 996x1002, 1002x1008, 1008x1014, 1014x1020, 1020x1026, 1026x1032, 1032x1038, 1038x1044, 1044x1050, 1050x1056, 1056x1062, 1062x1068, 1068x1074, 1074x1080, 1080x1086, 1086x1092, 1092x1098, 1098x1104, 1104x1110, 1110x1116, 1116x1122, 1122x1128, 1128x1134, 1134x1140, 1140x1146, 1146x1152, 1152x1158, 1158x1164, 1164x1170, 1170x1176, 1176

LISTEN!

You never got a telephone message of more importance than this: That Geo. C. Murphy, the Reliable Clothier, Hatter and Gents' Furnisher, has just received his new fall stock of Hats, such as the celebrated

Imperial, Duquesne, Flexor, Flexile, Knox, Miller and Dunlop Block.

We are sole agents for the Imperial Hat, and we claim it is the best hat in America. It is warranted to neither fade nor break. Come in and see it.

Our advance styles of Neckwear are now in and we want your opinion. We think it hard to beat.

For good, reliable, stylish garments go to

GEO. C. MURPHY,
Bargain One Price
Clothier, Hatter, Furnisher.

LOVERS

of good Soda Water, Take Notice!

ALVIN H. BULGER,

THE DRUGGIST,

has just begun the manufacture of his Famous

SODA WATER,

Cold and Delicious,
Clean and Pure.

Stop in and quench your thirst with a glass of it, and see if it is not superior to any you have tried.

AT BULGER'S

These shoes fit to perfection and wear as only the best of leather can. They're shapely, pliant—the most comfortable of footwear. They always manage to let in air and keep out water.

For sale by J. R. WARNER & CO., East Liverpool, Ohio.

Who Fills Your Prescriptions?

That question you should think about. They are safe in our hands.

Why? Because this is the only store on Sixth street that employs a registered and graduated drug clerk, as required by law.

You Run No Risk at Will Reed's.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—John Moore is a Pittsburgh visitor today.

—Mrs. Percy Frost is spending a week with relatives in Pittsburgh.

—Miss Grace Hart returned home from Pittsburgh this morning.

—Miss Lillian Brooks went to Akron this morning to visit relatives.

—Miss Mary Scott, of Mt. Union, is the guest of Miss Blanche Carey.

—P. G. Peterson and family left this morning to visit friends in Harrison county.

—Charles Fisher arrived this morning, after a vacation of two weeks at the sea shore.

—Mrs. Henry Koch and Miss May Tattgenhorst are the guests of friends in Steubenville.

—Miss Etta Horwell is home after a visit of a few days with friends in Oakmont, Pa.

—G. W. Henry, of Alliance, returned home Saturday after a brief visit with Doctor Williams.

—Mrs. Clark Birch arrived home this morning, after a visit of six weeks in Jefferson county.

—H. Kountz returned to Pittsburgh this morning after visiting E. O. Connors, Fifth street.

—Miss Mary Buchanan has returned home, after a vacation with friends in Washington county.

—Miss Bertha Sample went to Pittsburgh this morning, and will spend a week with friends there.

—Motorman Stodghill and family returned home today after a visit of a week with friends in Cleveland.

—Joseph G. Lee and wife arrived home Saturday evening after a visit of two weeks at Berkeley Springs, Pa.

—Will Lear and wife returned to their home in Wheeling this morning, after an extended visit with friends here.

—George Jones and daughter Miss Alice, of Bellaire, are visiting at the home of Lon Thomas, Greasy street.

—The Misses Watson returned home Saturday evening, after a visit at the home of Judge Collins, of Columbus.

—Miss Mattie Jolly returned home Saturday evening, after a visit of three weeks with relatives in East Palestine.

—Mrs. T. B. Grimes and son, of Wellsburg, are visiting an uncle of Mrs. Grimes, J. C. Nichols, Thompson avenue.

—Mrs. R. M. Smith, of Baden, returned home today after a brief visit at the home of Reverend Reinartz, Third street.

—Miss Lucy Milbrin, of Allegheny, niece of ex-Mayor Wyman, of that city, is the guest of Miss Minnie Wilson, of Broadway.

—Misses Annie and Alice Hurst, of Wooster, who have been the guests of Miss Annie Pope, of Thompson place, returned to their home today.

—Charley Hall and Joe Cartwright rode to Steubenville on their wheels, Saturday afternoon, and saw the end of one of the best tennis tournaments ever held in this part of the state.

G. A. R. AT ST. PAUL.

Special Rates via Pennsylvania Lines for National Encampment.

August 30 and 31 and September 1 are the dates upon which low rate round trip tickets to St. Paul will be sold via Pennsylvania lines, the short route through Chicago. Tickets will be good returning until September 15, inclusive, and if deposited with the joint agent at St. Paul on or before September 15, the return limit will be extended to include September 30. The rates for this occasion will be exceptionally low via Pennsylvania lines, the only system of railroads over which trains run from Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana to Chicago union station, the natural gateway from those states to the northwest. Daily trains from Pittsburgh, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Louisville make convenient connection at Chicago with St. Paul trains. Arrangements may be made by Grand Army posts or parties of friends to travel together on special trains or special car that will go through from starting point to the encampment without change, if the number justifies it. Information on the subject will be cheerfully furnished by representatives of the Pennsylvania lines. The person to address at East Liverpool is Ticket Agent Adam Hill.

G. A. R. AT ST. PAUL.

Special Rates via Pennsylvania Lines for National Encampment.

August 30 and 31 and September 1 are the dates upon which low rate round trip tickets to St. Paul will be sold via Pennsylvania lines, the short route through Chicago. Tickets will be good returning until September 15, inclusive, and if deposited with the joint agent at St. Paul on or before September 15, the return limit will be extended to include September 30. The rates for this occasion will be exceptionally low via Pennsylvania lines, the only system of railroads over which trains run from Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana to Chicago union station, the natural gateway from those states to the northwest. Daily trains from Pittsburgh, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Louisville make convenient connection at Chicago with St. Paul trains. Arrangements may be made by Grand Army posts or parties of friends to travel together on special trains or special car that will go through from starting point to the encampment without change, if the number justifies it. Information on the subject will be cheerfully furnished by representatives of the Pennsylvania lines. The person to address at East Liverpool is Ticket Agent Adam Hill.

G. A. R. AT ST. PAUL.

Special Rates via Pennsylvania Lines for National Encampment.

August 30 and 31 and September 1 are the dates upon which low rate round trip tickets to St. Paul will be sold via Pennsylvania lines, the short route through Chicago. Tickets will be good returning until September 15, inclusive, and if deposited with the joint agent at St. Paul on or before September 15, the return limit will be extended to include September 30. The rates for this occasion will be exceptionally low via Pennsylvania lines, the only system of railroads over which trains run from Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana to Chicago union station, the natural gateway from those states to the northwest. Daily trains from Pittsburgh, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Louisville make convenient connection at Chicago with St. Paul trains. Arrangements may be made by Grand Army posts or parties of friends to travel together on special trains or special car that will go through from starting point to the encampment without change, if the number justifies it. Information on the subject will be cheerfully furnished by representatives of the Pennsylvania lines. The person to address at East Liverpool is Ticket Agent Adam Hill.

G. A. R. AT ST. PAUL.

Special Rates via Pennsylvania Lines for National Encampment.

August 30 and 31 and September 1 are the dates upon which low rate round trip tickets to St. Paul will be sold via Pennsylvania lines, the short route through Chicago. Tickets will be good returning until September 15, inclusive, and if deposited with the joint agent at St. Paul on or before September 15, the return limit will be extended to include September 30. The rates for this occasion will be exceptionally low via Pennsylvania lines, the only system of railroads over which trains run from Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana to Chicago union station, the natural gateway from those states to the northwest. Daily trains from Pittsburgh, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Louisville make convenient connection at Chicago with St. Paul trains. Arrangements may be made by Grand Army posts or parties of friends to travel together on special trains or special car that will go through from starting point to the encampment without change, if the number justifies it. Information on the subject will be cheerfully furnished by representatives of the Pennsylvania lines. The person to address at East Liverpool is Ticket Agent Adam Hill.

G. A. R. AT ST. PAUL.

Special Rates via Pennsylvania Lines for National Encampment.

August 30 and 31 and September 1 are the dates upon which low rate round trip tickets to St. Paul will be sold via Pennsylvania lines, the short route through Chicago. Tickets will be good returning until September 15, inclusive, and if deposited with the joint agent at St. Paul on or before September 15, the return limit will be extended to include September 30. The rates for this occasion will be exceptionally low via Pennsylvania lines, the only system of railroads over which trains run from Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana to Chicago union station, the natural gateway from those states to the northwest. Daily trains from Pittsburgh, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Louisville make convenient connection at Chicago with St. Paul trains. Arrangements may be made by Grand Army posts or parties of friends to travel together on special trains or special car that will go through from starting point to the encampment without change, if the number justifies it. Information on the subject will be cheerfully furnished by representatives of the Pennsylvania lines. The person to address at East Liverpool is Ticket Agent Adam Hill.

G. A. R. AT ST. PAUL.

Special Rates via Pennsylvania Lines for National Encampment.

August 30 and 31 and September 1 are the dates upon which low rate round trip tickets to St. Paul will be sold via Pennsylvania lines, the short route through Chicago. Tickets will be good returning until September 15, inclusive, and if deposited with the joint agent at St. Paul on or before September 15, the return limit will be extended to include September 30. The rates for this occasion will be exceptionally low via Pennsylvania lines, the only system of railroads over which trains run from Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana to Chicago union station, the natural gateway from those states to the northwest. Daily trains from Pittsburgh, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Louisville make convenient connection at Chicago with St. Paul trains. Arrangements may be made by Grand Army posts or parties of friends to travel together on special trains or special car that will go through from starting point to the encampment without change, if the number justifies it. Information on the subject will be cheerfully furnished by representatives of the Pennsylvania lines. The person to address at East Liverpool is Ticket Agent Adam Hill.

G. A. R. AT ST. PAUL.

Special Rates via Pennsylvania Lines for National Encampment.

August 30 and 31 and September 1 are the dates upon which low rate round trip tickets to St. Paul will be sold via Pennsylvania lines, the short route through Chicago. Tickets will be good returning until September 15, inclusive, and if deposited with the joint agent at St. Paul on or before September 15, the return limit will be extended to include September 30. The rates for this occasion will be exceptionally low via Pennsylvania lines, the only system of railroads over which trains run from Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana to Chicago union station, the natural gateway from those states to the northwest. Daily trains from Pittsburgh, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Louisville make convenient connection at Chicago with St. Paul trains. Arrangements may be made by Grand Army posts or parties of friends to travel together on special trains or special car that will go through from starting point to the encampment without change, if the number justifies it. Information on the subject will be cheerfully furnished by representatives of the Pennsylvania lines. The person to address at East Liverpool is Ticket Agent Adam Hill.

G. A. R. AT ST. PAUL.

Special Rates via Pennsylvania Lines for National Encampment.

August 30 and 31 and September 1 are the dates upon which low rate round trip tickets to St. Paul will be sold via Pennsylvania lines, the short route through Chicago. Tickets will be good returning until September 15, inclusive, and if deposited with the joint agent at St. Paul on or before September 15, the return limit will be extended to include September 30. The rates for this occasion will be exceptionally low via Pennsylvania lines, the only system of railroads over which trains run from Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana to Chicago union station, the natural gateway from those states to the northwest. Daily trains from Pittsburgh, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Louisville make convenient connection at Chicago with St. Paul trains. Arrangements may be made by Grand Army posts or parties of friends to travel together on special trains or special car that will go through from starting point to the encampment without change, if the number justifies it. Information on the subject will be cheerfully furnished by representatives of the Pennsylvania lines. The person to address at East Liverpool is Ticket Agent Adam Hill.

G. A. R. AT ST. PAUL.

A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Latest United States Government Food Report.
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., New York.

It Costs to Stop Cars.

The cost of stopping a train of cars has always been a subject of discussion, and it is sometimes worth the inquiry of railroad men. Estimates of the cost have ranged from one-quarter of a cent up to $2 for stopping an ordinary passenger train. The small figure represented only the estimated loss of metal by applying the brake to the wheel. Some of the real considerations that go to make up the cost of a stop are the coal burned while the train is standing still, and in order to resume the former speed—this the Pennsylvania railroad people put at 12 to 15 cents. Then there are the wages of all persons on the train, who, while the train slows down and stops, are paid as if the train were running. This is insignificant in the case of one person, but it amounts to something when the whole force is considered; besides this, there is the wear of the rails. A rail lasts only a third as long where trains come to a stop on it as when merely run over. This is the result of the action of the brakes. Then, too, more accidents occur to engines, to wheels and to axles in coming to a stop or in starting again than with running right along.

The Railroad Gazette reported a discussion some years ago on this subject, in which the conclusion is reached that the actual cost of stopping an ordinary train is about 80 to 60 cents. An amusing story is told of a trial where experts testify that it cost $2 to stop a train. They established the fact. Then the counsel on the other side produced the company's time table, with a full list of all the stops, including stations, took the total number of its trains, calculated the total stoppages of all the trains for one year, multiplying the result by $2—the experts' estimate of cost—and demonstrated that the stoppages alone had, if the estimate was right, cost the company three times as much as the entire amount of its operating expenses for the year. This reduction to a solid basis of fact upset the $2 theory.—Philadelphia Item.

FOR ANOTHER WEEK.

Porter Kayes Did Not Have a Hearing Today.

Porter Kayes, who was accused of a serious crime more than a week ago by George Ward, did not have a hearing this morning. Both sides of the controversy decided it would be best to postpone the trial, and it went over for another week. It will be remembered that the original date for the hearing was last Monday, but it was deferred until today. There is a growing sentiment that the case will never come up for trial.

ASSESSMENT NOTICE.

East Liverpool, Aug. 1, 1896.
The assessments for street improvements and sewers for the year 1896 are due and payable at the office of the City Clerk, on or before the first day of Sept., 1896. All assessments unpaid at that date will be certified to the County Auditor and collected with 10 per cent. penalty.

By order of the City Council.
JAMES N. HANLEY,
City Clerk.

Caused a Sensation.

A report involving the honor of a well known resident was widely circulated today. The rumor said he had eloped with a woman living in the lower part of the city, but relatives of the interested parties could not be found. Neighbors expressed the belief the story was true.

I will reopen the meat market formerly operated by me on Thursday, Sept. 3, 1896, and will have for sale the best grades of meat the market affords; also dressed poultry and everything good to eat in the line of meats.

J. A. JOSEPH,
No. 102 Fifth street.

Not This Time.

Postman Bevington's notorious horse was tied in Fourth street this morning, when a piece of paper was blown in its face. The animal immediately broke away, and was gathering its forces for a wild dash through the city when it was caught by a bystander.

Elected Delegates.

The Typographical union met yesterday afternoon and elected Criss McConnell, F. Leslie Trump and James F. Murphy delegates to Trades council. James F. Murphy was elected to fill a vacancy in the trustees.

New Pictures.

The McKinley club are in receipt of two handsome pictures of the next president. They were sent by the private secretary of the major, and will adorn the walls of the club room.

HIS RECOMPENSE.

"Finished at last!"

Martin Bruce spoke the words with a sigh of utter weariness and lifted his head from his work, taking the magnifying glass from one eye as he did so.

Upon the table before him was a large steel plate, on which he had engraved a design requiring the most delicate and careful work, and to which he had given several days of continuous labor.

"That poor child," he muttered, and listened to a sound of suppressed sobbing coming from above his half opened door.

With the cloud still upon his face he went to the landing and looked up the narrow staircase leading to the attic.

As he expected, he saw the little figure crouched upon the upper stair, the head low over folded arms, with bare feet.

The sobbing, though distinctly audible, was evidently carefully choked down.

"Trixy!" Martin said in a low tone. In a moment the child was beside him, with a quick, darting motion that suited well the slender figure, thin to painful angularity, the face that was almost impenetrable in its look of want and precocity.

Martin Bruce, tall and strong, with a handsome blond face, bent low and met the gaze of large, intensely black eyes swollen and inflamed by tears.

Silently he lifted the child, and taking her into his own room closed the door. "What's the trouble now?" he asked.

"I dropped the pitcher full of milk."

"When?"

"I couldn't help it," sobbed the child. "It was so heavy that my fingers got all stiff with ache, and before I knew it my wrists just gave a twist and down it all went."

"Whipped?"

"Oh, didn't she! See!"

And a ragged sack was slipped down to show the sickening welts upon the thin shoulders. Martin Bruce gave a shudder as he looked, and going to a washstand brought some ammonia, which he mixed in cool water, and tenderly bathed the wounds with an old handkerchief.

Trixy nestled close to the hand extended to caress her gently as these words were spoken, the only hand in the big boarding house that was ever filled with kindness for her.

"Fourteen," he said again. "Trixy, it is time you were at school, if you are ever to go!"

"Away from you?"

"I am going to Paris."

Utter, blank misery fell over the child's face.

"To Paris!" she whispered, with white, shaking lips.

"Yes, Trixy, for three years. You will be quite a woman when I come back."

Six years later, in a hotel in Nice, a beautiful girl dressed in deep mourning, and an elderly woman, who seemed a sort of confidential servant, were seated upon the wide piazza.

Suddenly the girl, who had been carelessly scanning the many unfamiliar faces, grasped her companion's arm, saying:

"Do you know who that is?" pointing as she spoke to a tall man with a shade over his eyes, who was seated upon a bench in the square.

"Yes, ma'amse," said the servant in French, "that is the blind gentleman who is here under the care of Dr. Bannaire. But is it not dreadful? So handsome! So strong and hopelessly blind!"

"Hopelessly blind!"

"So they say! He was injured by the work he did—fine work that tired his eyes—I do not know what it was. And he came here to Dr. Bannaire, hoping to be cured. But it is useless. He can never see again!"

The young lady addressed rose as her servant spoke, and crossing the piazza stepped lightly down the steps and straight to the bench upon which the blind man was seated.

Without preface, without introduction, she said:

"I think, sir, I recognize you as a gentleman who placed a child in a school some years ago—a school where I was teacher for a short time."

The sightless eyes were turned quickly toward the speaker.

"I was deeply interested in such a child. Can you give me any tidings of her?"

"She left the school to travel with Mrs. Elwyn, an elderly lady in feeble health. Before she had been six months with Mrs. Elwyn that lady was convinced that she had found the child of a very dear sister who had eloped from home years before and whose life and death had been shrouded in mystery. Further inquiry only confirmed the facts, as the child remembered them, and when Mrs. Elwyn died here in Nice six months ago she left her entire property to Beatrice Moore, her niece."

"Then Trixy is an heiress?"

"Yes. It was one of the marvelous dispensations of Providence we dare call accident that took Mrs. Elwyn to the school. There Trixy's strong resemblance to her sister attracted her notice, and she inquired about her. Finding she was anxious to obtain employment, she engaged her as companion for a continental trip."

"I am very glad! Do you know where she is?"

A little hand fell lightly upon one lying on the knee of Martin Bruce, and his was lifted to touch a soft, round cheek. A voice, low and tender, said very softly:

"Have you forgotten me?"

"Trixy," he exclaimed, "I have never forgotten you! But you are no longer the little child I left years ago."

"No," was the half mournful answer. "I am a woman now. But you will not send me from you. You will let me remain beside you and be your eyes and hands?"

"Ah, Trixy, no! Your youth and beauty—for I know you are beautiful—must never be taxed by such a heavy charge. Do you know I can never see you again?"

The prospect of separation nerved her as no other prospect could have done, and she sought the bench where she had met Martin Bruce daily with a resolution that made her cheek burn.

"Martin," she said gently, "but few women dare to take their life's happiness into their own hands."

"Trixy," her lover said, "you deceive yourself. You think gratitude forces you to."

A soft hand closed his lips.

"Do you love me, Martin?"

"With my whole heart!"

"As I love you!"

"Trixy, I dare not take you as your word!"

"But you will! I have loved you for six years, Martin. I will not lose you again."

—Cincinnati Post.

Bryan and His Running Mates.

Mr. Bryan can now arrange it so that, while Mr. Sewall is carrying the cross of gold, Tom Watson may trot along behind with the crown of thorns.

Officers in the British army and navy, who are all of the rank of gentlemen, take precedence according to rank in their profession.

Reasons For Confidence.

Let the business men who are scared into selling out their securities at panic prices and the merchant who trembles at the thought of buying goods take heart of grace. Let them remember that nearly a third of the delegates to the Chicago convention refused to bow the knee to the Populist Baal, and that as large a percentage of the old party has no notion of wandering off after these false gods. Twenty per cent, 10 per cent of this element in the Democracy would save the country from the results of Populism as effectually as the 10 righteous men would have protected Sodom and Gomorrah. There can be no reasonable doubt that this proportion and more will vote for a sound money ticket or will not vote at all, to say nothing of that vast body of independent voters who are increasing in number every year and whom no party ties can hold against their convictions. The Democrats have met, have organized, and they have a wide-reaching influence. There is no doubt as to how they stand. Long before the first frost comes sensible people will laugh at the idea of there being a time when they could believe this country would have a Populist president.—Louisville Courier-Journal (Dem.).

The Demand For Mother of Pearl.

Consider the vast values in gem pearls obtained from the eastern fisheries, it is surprising to find that the plain, unadorned mother of pearl secured is of even greater worth. Previous to the discovery of the extensive Australian fishing grounds, in 1865, the supply of mother of pearl was diminishing while the demand was increasing. The large shelled species already mentioned are there found in fine quality. The shells are the size of large soup plates, weigh a pound each and are worth about a dollar a pair. An expert diver, in diving dress, will collect 300 or 400 pairs in a day. About 100 gem pearls are found in every ton of these shells.—Popular Science Monthly.

In Bonny Scotland.

Pressing business engagements make it highly important that our tourists should catch the 6 o'clock train for the south on Monday morning. Boots was interviewed on Sunday night, a hansom administered, perhaps incautiously, and a solemn promise received of an early call. Next morning the tourist awoke of his own accord, at half past 7, and aroused the boots, who listened to the torrent of anger that was poured upon him in mild surprise. "Cot bless me, sir, you was not so bad at all! The man in the next room to you was to catch the 5 o'clock boat and he's no wakened yet."—Exchange.

Tall Lying.

"I once knew a man," said the imaginative boarder, "who was so fat that he was actually taller lying down than when he was standing up. What do you think of that?"

"It strikes me," said the cheerful idiot, "as pretty tall lying."—Indianapolis Journal.

Moved to Palestine.

Alonso Bowman is moving his family to East Palestine, where he has secured work in the pottery.

$500 Reward!

We will pay the above reward for any case of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Indigestion, Constipation or Constiveness we cannot cure with West's Vegetable Liver Pills, when the directions are strictly complied with. They are purely Vegetable, and never fail to give satisfaction. Sugar Coated. Large boxes, 25 cents. Beware of counterfeits and imitations. The genuine manufactured only by THE JOHN C. WEST COMPANY, CHICAGO, ILL.

For sale by Will Reed, East Liverpool, O.

LADIES DO YOU KNOW DR. F. L. BRUN'S Steel & Pennyroyal Pills

are the original and only FRENCH, safe and reliable cure for the market. Price, $1.00; sent by mail. Genuine sold only by Will Reed, East Liverpool, Ohio.

LADIES DO YOU KNOW DR. F. L. BRUN'S Steel & Pennyroyal Pills

are the original and only FRENCH, safe and reliable cure for the market. Price, $1.00; sent by mail. Genuine sold only by Will Reed, East Liverpool, Ohio.

LADIES DO YOU KNOW DR. F. L. BRUN'S Steel & Pennyroyal Pills

are the original and only FRENCH, safe and reliable cure for the market. Price, $1.00; sent by mail. Genuine sold only by Will Reed, East Liverpool, Ohio.

LADIES DO YOU KNOW DR. F. L. BRUN'S Steel & Pennyroyal Pills

are the original and only FRENCH, safe and reliable cure for the market. Price, $1.00; sent by mail. Genuine sold only by Will Reed, East Liverpool, Ohio.

LADIES DO YOU KNOW DR. F. L. BRUN'S Steel & Pennyroyal Pills

are the original and only FRENCH, safe and reliable cure for the market. Price, $1.00; sent by mail. Genuine sold only by Will Reed, East Liverpool, Ohio.

LADIES DO YOU KNOW DR. F. L. BRUN'S Steel & Pennyroyal Pills

are the original and only FRENCH, safe and reliable cure for the market. Price, $1.00; sent by mail. Genuine sold only by Will Reed, East Liverpool, Ohio.